FINAL DOUSING. Firemen play a hose on the still smoldering rear tires of this huge tanker that burned and exploded Tuesday, shaking Industry to its roots before the roaring flames were quelled by seven district fire departments. Heat of the intense gasoline-fed flames crumpled the sides of the big tanker and the fire consumed virtually everything in the cab except the metal after the rig plunged into Wolf Run following a collision with guardrails at the approach of the bridge. Despite the extensive damage and grave threat, no one was hurt.

Industry Area 'All Shook Up'

Raging Gas Tanker Fire Causes Loss Of $37,570

By BYRON EELLS

Residents of Industry still were shaky today after a potential disaster Tuesday afternoon when a roaring gasoline-fed fire threatened the community and caused extensive property damage.

Miraculously, no one was injured but Pennsylvania State Police at Rochester estimated property damage at $37,570 in the blaze which destroyed a big tanker loaded with 7,074 gallons of gasoline, a 1959 station wagon and a 1958 convertible, damaged 7 other autos, a grocery-service station and two homes and interrupted electrical service between Midland and Ohio View.

Raymond P. Sockaci of New Brighton R. D. 1, owner-driver of the tractor, forced his way out of a jammed door of the flaming cab just as two Industry men, James D. Taylor and James Lambert, disregarding their own safety, raced to his aid.

As the three ran from the flaming truck, others in the vicinity also raced away, fearing the flaming gasoline might scatter over a wide area.

Even after the first volunteers started to fight the flames, they were driven away by new explosions and the intense heat, which was felt more than 1,000 feet away. State Police listed the vehicle damage as:

Sockaci's 1959 tractor, $18,000; trailer owned by Tank Truck Rentals, Inc., $7,000; 1959 station wagon of Ernest J. Lee, $3,500; 1958 convertible purchased by Taylor a week ago, $2,500; 1957 sedan of Lyle (Squeak) Craft, son of the grocery-service station operator, $1,000; a 1953 convertible of Chester Summers of R. D. 1, $600; a 1953 sedan of Paul Chmara, $400; a 1948 sedan of Clarence E. Craft, operator of the store and service station, $400; a 1952 sedan of Edward J. Stowers, $125; a 1936 coupe of George Noah Jr. used in stock car racing, $100, and a 1952 sedan of Earl G. Harper, $25.

The officers estimated about $2,000 damage to the store where the roof was burned and 2 large display windows cracked, $55 to the residence of Mildred Jamrozik, where the paint was blistered and 6 windows broken, and $50 damage

FBI Agents Arrest 2 Men In Yorkville Bank Robbery

STEUBENVILLE, Ohio (AP)—The FBI has arrested two men sought in the $38,000 robbery more than a month ago of the Community Savings Bank in nearby Yorkville. One man was captured in Miami, Fla., the other in Beaumont, Tex.

Daniel J. Koenig, 28, was taken into custody at his Miami home Tuesday night. The FBI said a search of the house uncovered a wall panel that held a suitcase containing a .45 pistol and about $14,000.

Charles Forest Waugaman, 26, of Pittsburgh, was arrested earlier Tuesday in a Beaumont motel. Agents said an estimated $7,000 in water-soaked money had been recovered.

Both men have been charged under federal law with bank robbery. The FBI said the two were on parole from the Western State Penitentiary in Pittsburgh.

Koenig is to be arraigned before a U. S. commissioner at Miami today. Waugaman is being held in $50,000 bond pending his return to Steubenville where the charge against him was filed Sept. 11.

A weird set of circumstances surrounded the bank robbery on Aug. 22.

Beaver Jury May Get Neff Charge Today

BEAVER — The extortion trial of former state Sen. Samuel G. Neff and three former members of the State Highways Department in Beaver County is expected to go to the jury today.

Neff, Robert Yoho, Leon Kaleta and James Macry are accused of taking part in a scheme to collect from contractors 5 per cent of the money the contractors received from the state for leasing of equipment.

The defense rested its case Tuesday in the eighth day of the trial.

Yoho and Kaleta both took the stand and denied taking the alleged "kickbacks" from Beaver County highway equipment contractors.

Texas Farm Crash Site

All 34 Aboard Are Killed As Big Airliner Blows Up

CAB Begins Probe Into Air Tragedy

No Indication Of Trouble Reported, Control Office Says

WACO, Tex. (AP)—A big Houston-to-New York airliner exploded in the air Tuesday night, streaked across the sky like a comet, and crashed. Thirty-four persons died as it struck on a central Texas farm.

The ship was a 75-passenger Braniff Airways turboprop Electra. It carried 28 passengers and a crew of six. It had scheduled stops at Dallas and Washington.

There was no immediate explanation for the crash.

Jack Miller of Braniff at Houston said the plane arrived in Houston 22 minutes late and thus was 22 minutes late in leaving the terminal. It became airborne seven minutes later at 10:44 p. m. Miller had no explanation of why the craft arrived late.

Bruce Chambers of the Federal Aviation Agency's control office in Fort Worth, said the ship was flying on an instrument plan at 15,000 feet. It made its last report about 11:05 p. m. when east of Waco, Chambers said. He described the report as a routine filing on the plane's speed and altitude.

The pilot gave no indication of trouble at the time, he added.

Broken clouds hovered over this area then. There was thunderstorm activity about 75 miles to the northwest but none in the immediate vicinity, the Weather Bureau said.

The airliner crashed on the R. E. White farm, five miles southeast of Buffalo, a town of 1,200 population. Buffalo is 68 miles southeast of Waco.

"It looked like it exploded as it came over our house, 'way up in the sky," said Mrs. Billy Webb, 30. She and her husband watched from their home five miles north of where the wreckage hit.

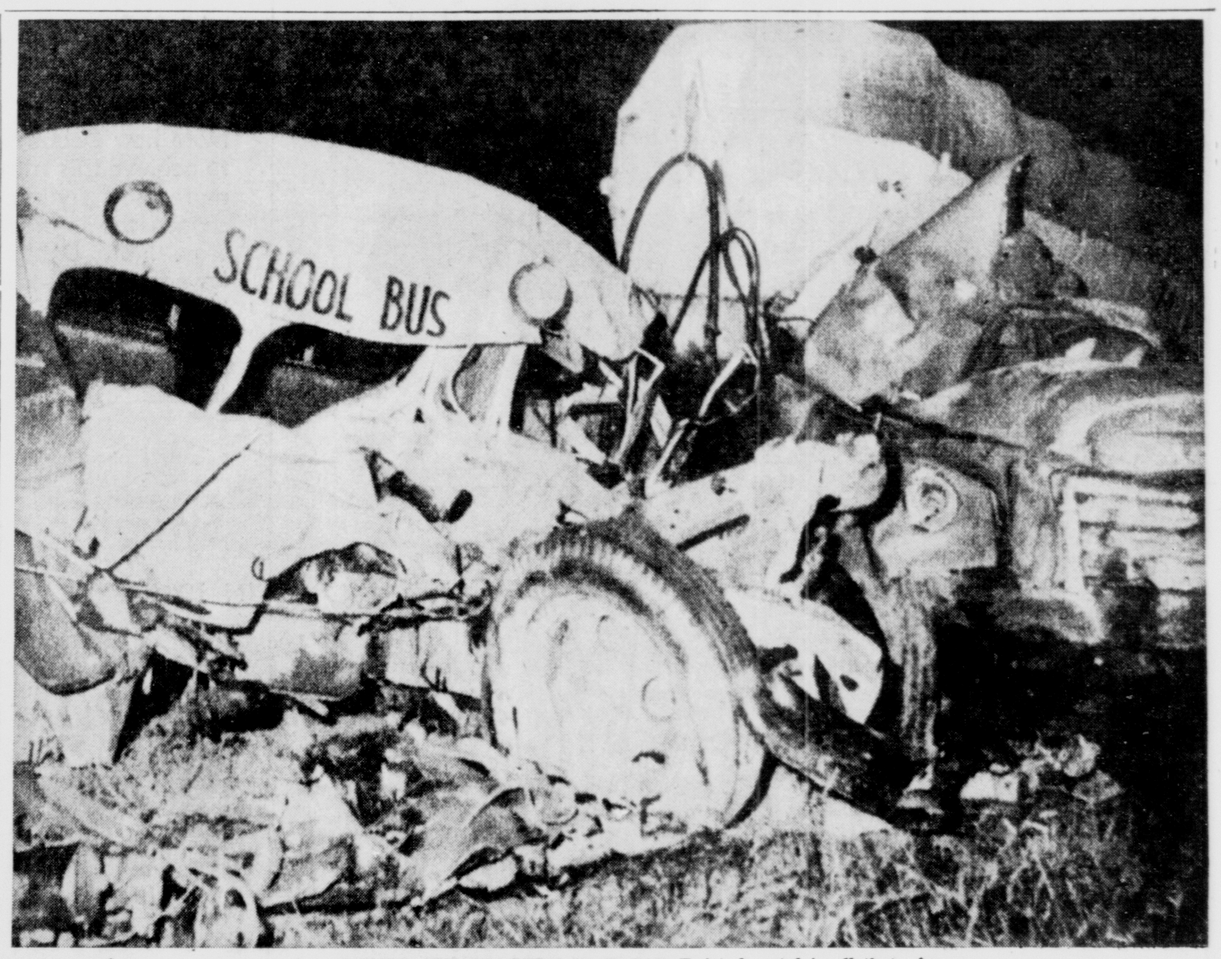

"The whole sky lit up. It kept on going, and it looked like a falling star.

"The light went out and we heard a terrific noise like a jet breaking the sound barrier. Then we heard it hit the ground and saw a tremendous explosion."

E. H. Pickens, 45, feed store owner in Buffalo, was one of the first to reach the crash scene.

He said there was mail, paper, packages, clothes and bits of bodies and plane wreckage strewn over a square mile.

"The biggest piece of plane I found when I got out there was a section of fuselage about 15 or 20 feet long," he added.

Negotiations Set To Resume In Steel Tieup

Ike In Personal Plea Prods Both Sides For Accord

WASHINGTON (AP)—Renewed talks in the steel strike were set up for this afternoon after President Eisenhower in personal conferences with both sides prodded them to get to work on a settlement.

Eisenhower met separately, first with industry leaders and then with representatives of the striking Steelworkers Union.

David J. McDonald, union president, then called for the renewed negotiations.

Roger M. Blough, U. S. Steel chairman, had said at the close of the management session with the President that the industry was willing to resume talks at any time.

A few minutes after the union delegation left the executive offices, McDonald telephoned the White House that the talks had been arranged.

Just before that word came out Eisenhower issued a statement saying that in view of the mounting impact of the 78-day-old strike on the nation's economy and the consequent unemployment "I sincerely hope that an agreement can be initiated before my return to Washington next week."

The President's statement said the purpose of his talks today was to help "to bring about a voluntary settlement of the steel strike which will be fair and just to all parties involved, including the public."

Chester Child Dies; Mercy Car In Crash

An autopsy was being held today to determine the cause of death in the case of a 3-year-old Chester girl, found lying in a bathtub at home late Tuesday afternoon, and whose transfer to City hospital was interrupted by a traffic collision.

Mary Angela Cavallaro, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Louis Samuel Cavallaro, 552 Florida Ave., was pronounced dead on arrival at the hospital at 5:30.

The child was found lying in a few inches of water in the bathtub where she had been taking a regular afternoon bath. However, authorities indicated there was little water in the child's lung and death may have stemmed from natural causes.

Dr. George Naymick of Weirton, Hancock County coroner, was to perform an autopsy today at Weirton General Hospital.

While the girl was being taken to City Hospital in the Chester firemen's emergency station wagon, the vehicle was involved in a collision at 3rd St. and Indiana Ave. with another auto during the nearly blinding rainfall of yesterday afternoon's storm.

Local Votes All Funds To Back Strike Effort

The membership of Local 1269, United Steelworkers Union of the Midland Mackintosh - Hemphill division of the E. W. Bliss Co. voted Tuesday evening to spend its entire treasury to purchase food during the present strike.

George Van Kirk of East Liverpool, president of 1269, told members that food will be distributed one day next week, at a date to be announced.

James Mullen and Alex Bowie, both union staff representatives of East Liverpool, addressed the group. Bowie made a full report on contract negotiations with E. W. Bliss Co. officials. Bowie is meeting with his full committee today in Pittsburgh.

A committee headed by Charles Jackson of East Liverpool will meet with Van Kirk and Bowie Thursday morning to discuss the food program.

22 Injured In Texas

School Bus-Truck Crash Fatal To 8

COOPER, Tex. (AP) — A bus filled with school children and teachers en route to a junior high school football game collided headon Tuesday night with a huge tank truck. The violent crash killed eight persons—six students and two teachers—and injured 22 others including 21 children.

The bus from Mt. Vernon, Tex., and the diesel truck collided at a highway intersection on the eastern edge of this east Texas town. There was no fire. The impact hurled some children to the highway, demolished the bus and smashed the truck's cab.

"The bus made a signal to turn left and then for some reason swerved. I just couldn't miss him. It was horrible," said J. M. Warrington, 39, of Grand Saline, Tex., the truck driver.

Warrington was injured and taken to a Paris, Tex., hospital. He was en route home from Pryor, Tex., where he had delivered a load of salt.

Killed in the crash were Jack Henry, 45, principal of the Mt. Vernon Junior High School and driver of the bus; his son, Billy Max, 12; Melba Meeks, a teacher; Kenneth Hightower, 12, and Rex Weatherford, 12. Three other students, Zach Taylor, Audrey Sue Turner, 13; and Waukita Rainey, a sixth-grader, died from their injuries.

Ambulances took the injured to hospitals here, at Paris and Sulphur Springs. Anxious parents and relatives crowded hospital rooms and halls as they sought their children. At Paris an emergency call for blood donors brought out 400 volunteers.

A second bus carrying the Mt. Vernon Junior High School football squad arrived a few minutes after the accident. The game was cancelled.

The truck was en route to Grand Saline, a salt-producing center, after delivering a load of salt.

Exact cause of the accident was not clear. It occurred at a Y-shaped intersection. Officers said the bus was going north and the truck south when the bus driver started to turn left onto the branch of the Y.

Officers said apparently the bus driver decided he couldn't make it and swerved back to the right. At the same time, they said, the truck driver apparently cut to his left in an attempt to miss the bus, which he thought was going to turn left in front of him.

The vehicles collided in almost the middle of the highway.

Phone, Power Service Hit

City Lashed By Rainstorm, Store Basements Flooded

A severe rainstorm with high winds lashed the immediate East Liverpool area Tuesday afternoon, flooding basements or displays of several downtown businesses and interrupting telephone service. Some street lights were doused.

One person was hurt indirectly.

The storm was localized and drenched the city with an estimated 1.5 inches of rain in about an hour, leaving some streets curbhigh with racing water and heaving a section of pavement. Some sewers were clogged by the heavy runoff.

Thunder and lightning accompanied the storm and a bolt struck a business buliding and a phone cable but there was no fire.

The storm, which came out of the southeast, also hit parts of Chester and Newell but virtually all other communities had only light rain or brief showers about the time the wind was whipping the heavy rain through East Liverpool streets.

Heavy water damage resulted to stock at the Barbara Lynn Shop, 516 Market St., and Siff Shoe Store, 514 Market, both located beneath the WOHI offices.

Mrs. Eileen Bailey, manager of the dress shop, said extensive damage resulted to stock in both display windows and stock on tables at the front of the store. The water also ran into the basement

10 Lose Lives, Damage High In Hurricane

Gracie Diminishes But Rains Dangerous In North Carolina

CHARLESTON, S.C. (AP) — Tropical storm Gracie, no longer a hurricane, plodded slowly across western North Carolina today. While her winds had diminished to gusty squalls with a top of 50 miles an hour, her heavy rains threatened dangerous flooding.

She left behind a trail of damage running into the millions of dollars and 10 deaths possibly attributable to her winds and rain.

At 8 a.m., the storm center was situated near Hickory, N.C., some 50 miles northwest of Charlotte. Her path was northward at about 12 miles an hour, but she appeared turning more northeastward and was expected to pick up forward speed as she moves across Virginia this afternoon and early tonight.

At Miami Beach, Fla., a 15-foot wave rolling in from Gracie's wake swept over a jetty Tuesday night and carried a married couple into the water. The body of Elizabeth Rutherford was found by a fishing boat crew but rough seas halted a search for the body of her husband, Jack. Police said Rutherford was presumed dead.

Georgia reported one storm-connected death. Alex Sheffield, 26, was killed when he stepped on a live wire that had been blown down by strong winds Tuesday afternoon at Statesboro, about 50 miles northwest of Savannah.

Gracie's heavy rain was expected to cause flash flooding in western North Carolina, central and western Virginia, the eastern portion of West Virginia, western Maryland and central and eastern Pennsylvania.

The storm now packs winds of about 40 m.p.h., with gusts to about 50 m.p.h. in some squalls.

Gracie ground ashore near here Tuesday morning with 140-mile-an hour peak winds, torrents of rain and high tides.

She brought rain, raging winds and high water all along the coast from Savannah, Ga., to Myrtle Beach, and swept inland to slash lowland communities along a path 100 miles wide.

Three died in South Carolina in traffic accidents attributable to the storm.

Sewage Pumps Repairs Continue

Work is continuing on repair and replacement of four defective lift station pumps in Wellsville's new sewage treatment system, according to Safety-Service Director William S. Robinson.

The pumps have been out of order for about six weeks, breaking down after about three months operation.

All the pumps have been removed from the station, torn apart and now are being put back together. Robinson said it is not known how long the repairs will take. The sewage treatment plant still is working on a partial basis.

The pumps were 2 each of 600-gallon per minute and 300-gallon per minute. Two were located at the No. 1 and No. 2 sewage stations at the upper end of town and the other 2 at 20th and Main Sts.

The repairs are being done by the Fairbanks-Morse Pump Co. of Chicago. They will be reinstalled by the firm in conjunction with H. & H. F. Hosea Co. of Cincinnati, general contractor on the system.

The pumps were guaranteed and there will be no cost to the city other than the inconvenience.

New Hope For Backward Nations

The United States proposal to create a new international loan agency is more than just another way of helping underdeveloped nations.

It is a way of spreading the philosophy of capitalistic enterprise to those economically backward areas of the world where communism often manages to make the greatest impact.

The plan, boasting bipartisan support among U.S. political leaders, was described by President Eisenhower and Treasury Secretary Robert B. Anderson to the governing boards of the World Bank and the International Monetary Fund. It has been on the "drawing boards" for nearly a decade.

Principally, it would set up a one-billion-dollar International Development Assn. to make long-term, low-interest loans at least partially repayable in native currencies.

It is designed to fill a void by making self-help aid available to nations which do not qualify for loans from the existing world finance agencies, which generally operate along the more conservative lines followed by conventional banks.

In the past, this void has been filled, when it has been filled at all, by direct U.S. and sometimes Russian grants. The trouble is that U.S. aid is limited by the imposition it places on already overburden taxpayers and by the fear that if no strings are attached, the American people have no assurance their gifts are accomplishing their purpose.

Communist grants, when they are more than just promises, nearly always have strings attached which may trap the unwary or frighten off the wary.

The new agency would be willing to take the risk with underprivileged nations to give them a chance to help themselves. The only strings attached to the loans would be that they be repaid. It would be much the same as the banker who is willing to go out on a limb to help small businesses in his community with the hope that his community, and therefore he himself, will profit.

The appeal would be to those nations who need help but do not want charity. The plan would be based on the capitalistic concept of providing an incentive and an opportunity to direct one's own affairs.

The plan would not replace the U.S. aid program, because some members of the world community will continue to need charitable contributions.

But it would serve the three-fold purpose of relieving some of the pressure on the gift fund, helping small but ambitious nations to build their self-respect along with their economies and spreading the philosophy that self-directed enterprise offers the best hope for attaining a position of dignity in the eyes of one's neighbors.

Laos: A Pain In The Neck

Laos is one of those remote trouble spots that crop up every now and then to make international relations resemble a bloodthirsty poker game: The pot looks small but the stakes are big.

As usual the Communists are wearing poker faces and the West must be alert for clues as to whether the Reds are bluffing or not.

Although the United Nations is awaiting the report of its special investigating subcommittee on what is actually going on in the tiny Southeast Asia kingdom, the report is not likely to settle anything. Russia tried to block the inquiry in the first place, and probably will use its veto to keep the Security Council from taking any action the probers may recommend.

So, if the free world deems action necessary, the responsibility for it likely will fall on the shoulders of the Southeast Asia Treaty Organization, through which the United States has promised to move to meet any threats to the status quo.

The U.S. has lined up support of world opinion for Laotian independence in an effort to prevent the need for SEATO action. And the Laotians have said they do not intend to ask for such action unless the Red rebels get help from outside the country.

The Reds might be willing to force the issue because the only alternative to direct SEATO intervention would be what they have been plugging for all along — sending the hot potato back to a reassembly of the Geneva conference that worked out the Indochina truce in 1954. This, the Reds believe, would bring a reactivation of the armistice supervisory commission, under which the Communists in Laos fared better than they have since the commission was disbanded last year.

Here is where the stakes get rough. Laos is tiny and remote, but it occupies a strategic position in Southeast Asia power plays. If the Communists were able, either directly or indirectly, to take control of Laos, Thailand, Cambodia and South Viet Nam might well fall in to the Red domain, too.

That is why the midget menace in Laos may mushroom into a world crisis before the issue is settled. It is something like a pain in the neck—not bad enough to get excited about but too annoying to be ignored.

Three Cheers For A New Auto Season

With one of the most exciting baseball seasons in years drawing to a close and what promises to be an exciting football season getting under way, Americans are tingling with anticipation over another of their favorite seasonal pastimes: looking over the new crop of automobiles.

As in the other sports, the old familiar faces of the auto industry are apt to find themselves sidelined by the appearance of the newcomers — the long-hearalded "compacts."

Like the rookies of baseball and football, the compacts are at the moment more promise than proof. They haven't had a chance to show what they can do in the big-time competition. No one knows yet what they will do to or for the game.

But their "managers" are full of pre-season confidence. This is their bid to bolster the sagging public interest of the past few years and thereby to hike the receipts.

The cheerleading publicity men have offered tantalizing previews of what the people in the stands can expect: plainer styling, lower prices, easier parking, rear-end engines, less fuel consumption.

They have made no bones about the fact that they want to block the offensive gains of foreign cars. They hope to meet the problem successfully. They have pinned their hopes on confidence that Americans will prefer what Americans create. And they are indulging in that Old American custom-compromise — to win the home folks' cheers.

The new compacts will be neither as big as traditional American cars nor as small as the foreign competitors. Their performances and their prices also aim for the happy medium. On that philosophy, the auto industry is aiming for the happy extreme—near-record production and sales.

All in all, it promises to be an exciting season for auto fans everywhere.

The Once Over

By H. I. Phillips

Gasoline is up again through another federal tax, proving once more that the auto owner is regarded as a punch-drunk preliminary boy who can still take it. Federal and state governments, charge as much for gas as the producer, in theory that a solvent autoist is shirking his duty.

The excuse is that more and more taxes on gas are required to provide superhighways but a poll would show thousands would be glad to use old roads to escape the federal foot on necks.

New highways are wonderful but autoist pays through both the nose and the hose. A modern auto trip is a journey through wider roads on thinner pocketbooks. It is a dizzy flight between given points, most of which are toll and gas stations.

Autoists stop not only to have gas and oil checked but their wallets as well. When they say, "I think I'm flat," they may be referring to the bank balance.

WHILE THE STATION attendant handles the pump, Uncle Sam handles the vacuum cleaner.

To "Want your windshield cleaned?" they can reply, "No, I'm in such bad shape I wouldn't know if I was coming or going anyhow."

Politicians and lawmakers are to blame. When the auto was given to the world nobody dreamt the time would come when its operation would be a test of personal valor and financial endurance. (We can remember when gas was a dime a gallon, tax free. In our first car we drove up to a gas station and ordered two gallons out of sheer New England frugality.)

The roads were not de luxe but they afforded foliage, fresh air and a sense of enjoying scenery while in motion. Of course superhighways are a requirement of progress.

They get you around with fewer bumps on your anatomy but with more bruises on your economic status. They make it possible for millions of Americans to pass one another with less crowding en route to the poorhouse or bankruptcy court.

But the situation calls for a few more road signs. We suggest "SLOW DOWN: FISCAL PROBLEM AHEAD," "TAXATION ZONE UNDER REPAIRS" and "DANGER. U.S. NEW TAX PROPOSAL NEAR."

How fine to tune to TV fare
And not find Khrushchev on the air!
Our screen shifts to the normal track—
AND OUR OWN COWBOYS GET IT BACK!

IT'S A WONDER Nikita didn't claim that Camp David constituted "house arrest." Looking back over his visit, the best break the United States got was Khrush endorsement of an American hot dog.

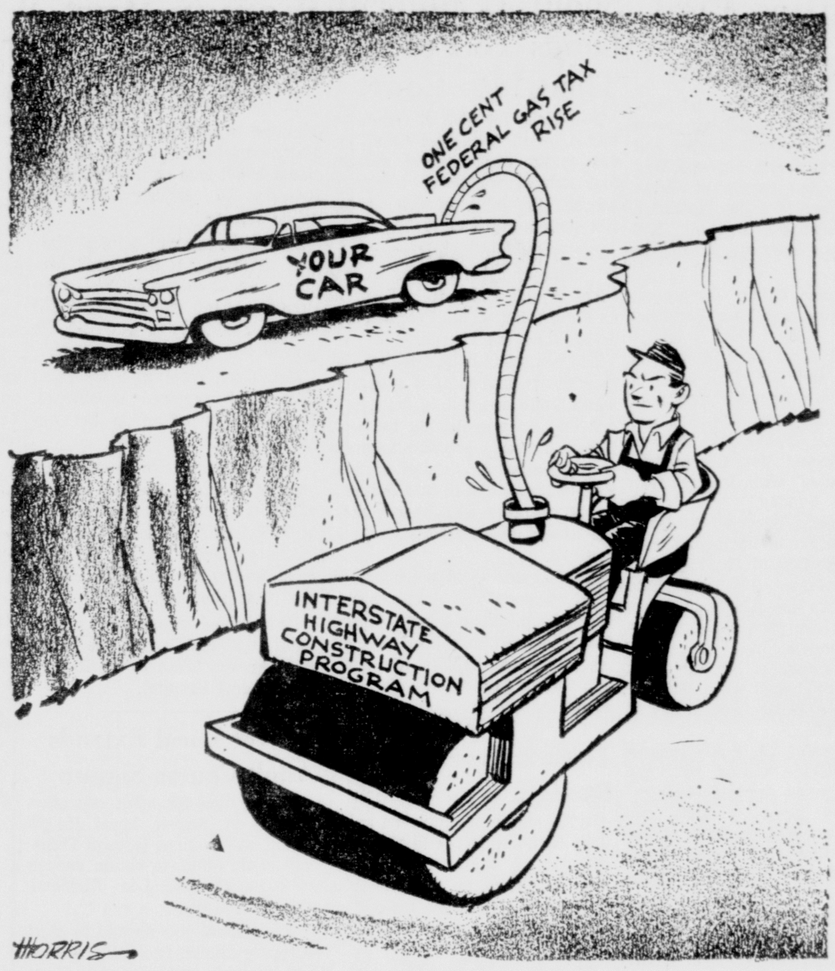

We were afraid he might declare the frankfurter an aggressor if served with hot mustard. In a way he made the hot dog an instrument of world peace and certainly put it far ahead of Disneyland as helpful in thawing out the cold war.

It brings the late Harry Stevens into the picture as a man of global influence. It was Harry who first promoted hot dogs through baseball parks. Famous cartoonist "Tad" Dorgan rates an assist, too.

WHAT A CHANGE! The forenoon passes without a single display of a bald-headed man in anger, housewives are able by 2 p.m. to report that not a single soap opera has been cancelled for a luncheon telecast and that the entire jackpot program will be run with no time out for a close-up of a fight between a toastmaster and the head of a powerful state.

No man passing under a motorcycle escort will interrupt "Edge of Night," Dr. Joyce Brothers or Gale Storm.

Industry Plans Role In Politics

By Victor Riesel

SAN FRANCISCO

Three days before we took a morning walk over Nob Hill with Comrade Chairman N. S. Khrushchev — along with the FBI, the Secret Service, the Army, the Navy and a grim band of Soviet gunmen, we ran into a capitalist story which will be making news long after he is back eating Communist borscht.

Victor Riesel

Obscured by the Soviet invasion was a quiet speech by the political and governmental affairs officer of the Ford Motor Co. He offered a plan, which Ford already has put into operation, for a national drive by businessmen to push 20 million middle-of-the-road, middle income voters into active politics in the coming presdential year.

While the national labor chiefs meeting two miles away were blasting big business for an alleged conspiracy against them, Thomas Reid, the Civic and Governmental Affairs manager of the Ford Motor Co., was telling leading businessmen that industry's new political drive must not be partisan or anti-labor. But neither did he want labor leaders monopolizing practical politics.

THIS WAS not just a speech. It might parallel the moment in 1943 when CIO launched its Political Action Committee.

This was the clearest call to action made by any business official. It revealed that business, now aroused, has been quietly building up its practical politics efforts with the same scientific rationale, research and daring with which it has constructed its latest refrigerator, small car or garbage disposal unit.

Reid also disclosed that so effectively has this plan worked for the Ford Motor Co., approved by Henry Ford II himself, that "hundreds" of Ford employes have been elected to political offices across the land — as Democrats and Republicans.

Then came this unprecedented and unreported statement which I believe will set a national pattern inside industry:

"We have recently issued a declaration of policy regarding employes who may be elected to full time public office," Reid disclosed.

"So far as we know it is the first of its kind in American industry. It states that every employe who should be so honored and who, therefore, finds it necessary to take a leave of absence from the company is assured certain employment rights, benefits, retirement and pension program provisions and the like — much as such assurances were given to employes in military service during war time.

"We feel that this final step—making political activity convenient and trying to lessen somewhat the sacrifice it may involve — is important in our total effort."

THIS MEANS that lower echelon executives right down to supervisors and foremen now can afford to campaign.

This is important because this cadre inside industry is the equivalent of the union business agent who draws his salary while campaigning.

The Ford practical politics director disclosed that this fall the company would "institute courses" in such activities.

First they will present their practical politics technique and its importance to their management people in plants throughout the country.

Then they will "conduct in-plant training courses on practical politics as the program develops we will see if it justifies the preparation of booklets and training material on practical politics for wider distribution."

As Reid outlined the Ford structure, which I believe will become the pattern for most industry, there is a top management committee on civic and governmental affairs.

It reviews governmental matters which affect the company. It makes policy, and plans strategy. Now it is expanding its staff to include a political research department.

Soon there will be regional units —manned by eight regional officers across country. Each will have special knowledge of his area.

They will aid local management in practical politics. Then they'll expand their information services to reach "members of management, employes, dealers and an exchange of information with other business firms."

THIS DEPARTMENT will get out voting records of congressmen and state and local officials. It will recruit on a nationwide basis "volunteers to work in the party of their choice in their home neighborhoods."

And in 10 years, says this spokesman for the Ford Co., there will be a new specialist in each corporation. He will be a member of "a new profession (which) will appear in American history. He will have received special college training, have gained experience in political and governmental activities and will be sought out by industry."

For almost two decades, labor has had the field to itself. Now there will be competition, the kind which made American products the greatest.

Letter To The Editor

Where, all of a sudden, did East Liverpool get $100,000 to relocate and cover Carpenters Run?

Is it because of the new freeway or because of two cases of typhoid fever reported at City Hospital? How many more will there be before something is done?

My family and I have been a resident of W. 8th St. for 6½ years, plus 2 years on Lisbon St. We have been fighting the city to have something done about this since we have lived here, plus all the other people before us and also all the neighbors.

But what did the city officials tell us? They are operating in the red—no money. That is getting to be the byword here. What is being done with the money? No wonder East Liverpool can't get new industry started here.

Are we going to sit back and wait for an epidemic of typhoid fever before we do anything about it?

The city of East Liverpool should be ashamed of building a beautiful school like Westgate where it did. The sanitary sewage plant on one side and the unsanitary Carpenters Run on the other.

My son, Buddy Joe Hager, has been a patient at City Hospital recovering from typhoid fever. A boy up the street from us is also in the hospital with what appears to be typhoid fever. When is this going to stop? Doesn't the life of my child or any other child mean a thing to East Liverpool? After all, they are going to be our future citizens.

MRS. RICHARD JONES
443 W. 8th St.

(Editor's Note—A report on a meeting of Council, which appeared in the Review of Sept. 26, explained the financing of the sewer relocation as follows: "Part of the cost was set aside when the city issued bonds to construct it interceptor sewer system, which feeds waste into the sewage treatment plant. Another portion of the cost will come out of sewage rental charges. The two local financing sources will be supplemented by a grant of about $33,000 in federal funds."

(It also is pointed out in the story that Council acted to clear the way for relocation of the Carpenters Run sewer as part of the preparation for construction of the first stage of the freeway.)

Through The Years

THIRTY YEARS AGO — About 400 Boy Scouts representing troops in Salem, East Liverpool, Columbiana, Lisbon and Leetonia attended a Columbiana County jamboree at the First Methodist Episcopal Church in Wellsville.

Mrs. Ann Myers of Lisbon, formerly of East Liverpool, was elected president of the 14th district of the Women's Relief Corps.

J. F. Grosscross was re-elected president of the Gardendale Home and School Association.

TWENTY YEARS AGO — Funds to support rehabilitation services conducted by East Liverpool Chapter 47 of the DAV were sought in the annual forget-me-not drive in East Liverpool, Wellsville, Chester and Newell.

The Rev. John F. Dimit, dean of East Liverpool district ministers, ended 43 years of active ministry — 30 years of which were spent in East Liverpool.

TEN YEARS AGO — New Philadelphia marched 67 yards after the opening kickoff to defeat East Liverpool, 7-0, before 5,000 fans at New Philly.

Mrs. Evelyn Fickel was installed as president of the Christian Endeavor Society of the First Church of Christ.

National Zoo

From aardvark to zebra, the collection of 3,000 animals in the National Zoo is one of the best in the world. And Washington hopes to keep it that way.

A year-old organization, Friends of the National Zoo, is preparing a master plan for its long-range development.

The zoo is a favorite stop for visitors to the nation's capital; few if any world zoos have a higher annual attendance. On an average day there are cars from about 22 states, territories, the District of Columbia, and foreign countries.

Though federally owned and administered by the Smithsonian Institution, the National Zoological Park's operating funds come from the District of Columbia budget. Dr. Theodore H. Reed is the director.

The National Zoo, despite a chronic lack of finances, has long been outstanding. A snow-leopard kitten made its debut there in 1958, the first of the rare species ever born in the Western Hemisphere. In the fall of 1958, the zoo's pair of striped hyenas produced a cub, Barnaby Rudge VI, believed to be the first born in a zoo anywhere.

The female Mongolian wild horse reached the ripe old age of 33 years before her recent death—something of a longevity record for that vanishing species. The Siberian crane has passed its 53rd birthday.

Diversionary Tactic

Reds Press Cold War Despite Khrushchev Visit

He came, he saw—but he didn't conquer. Nikita Khrushchev tested President Eisenhower and found him firm in his convictions that the people of West Berlin cannot be abandoned by the free world. The ultimatum filed by the Soviet Premier last November was not withdrawn.

David Lawrence

There may be a summit conference, to be sure, in a few weeks but it will start where the Geneva Foreign Ministers Conference left off. No progress has been made toward a solution unless the better climate created by the Soviet Premier's visit is a kind of progress in itself.

Likewise, it must be said that Nikita Khrushchev stood firm. If he yielded on any point, it might be found some day somewhere in the ambiguity of the many phrases he poured out in his visit to America.

The Sunday afternoon press conference and the farewell address made on television together with the many opportunities for the Soviet Premier in the last 12 days to give his side of the controversy between the East and the West are indications of a mutual desire, on the surface at least, for improvement in the relations between the Soviet Union and the United States.

But this is the way Soviet Propaganda works—it gives a glowing description of its intentions but, when it comes down to brass tacks, the only solution that seems peaceful to the Moscow regime involves the surrender by the other side of all its convictions.

THE WHOLE TRIP was a diversionary tactic—an effort to simplify the cold war on the propaganda front as if it were merely an argument between two economic systems like socialism and capitalism and as if all the pending questions could be settled easily around the conference table.

Even as the Soviet Premier was talking at the press conference table on Sunday afternoon there came over the press wires the following dispatch:

"Chinese Communist troops from Tibet are taking over land previously considered India's and have reinforced their garrisons along the border."

The cold war is still a hot war in many parts of the world. Nikita Khrushchev has done nothing to stop the fighting by the Communists in Laos or along the border of India. He signed nevertheless a communique of the usual pious kind issued after formal meetings of governmental officials.

It said that the Soviet Premier and President Eisenhower had "agreed that all outstanding international questions should be settled not by the application of force but by peaceful means by negotiations."

Yet throughout the world the Soviet subversion continues as billions of rubles are being spent to stir up revolutions in Southeast Asia and in North Africa and to foment friction between the United States and the countries of Latin America.

To cause each side to give up its missiles and nuclear weapons is the stated objective of the forthcoming discussions on disarmament but Mr. Khrushchev didn't say anything about disarming the infiltrators who are operating in behalf of the Communist cause throughout the world on the direct orders of the Soviet government in Moscow.

AS FOR THE STATUS of West Berlin, it hasn't been changed by the Khrushchev-Eisenhower conferences. It is still up to the various governments concerned to argue further about this.

Presumably there is to be a summit meeting soon at Geneva to continue the discussions, after which the matter will again be passed on to the four foreign ministers to consider.

It's a good thing that President Eisenhower's trip to the Soviet Union has been postponed till next spring. It gives time for the Soviets to build up through the negotiations in the meantime a better basis for consultation with Mr. Eisenhower on outstanding issues—possibly some minor concessions.

What it all comes down to is that those who have argued that there is merit in a series of talks and discussions by high officials of both sides are having their way. It isn't settling anything but at least it comforts many persons in giving them the feeling that war isn't around the corner.

The danger of a big war, however, still remains because neither side will really disarm. Meanwhile a smaller war can bring on a bigger one. Hitler thought he could get away with a localized war but it led to World War II.

THE KHRUSHCHEV answers to numerous questions by the press on Sunday were largely evasive and others were unintentionally meaningful.

The Soviet Premier, for instance, said it was true many young people were going to church but out of "curiosity." He said there was freedom of worship in the Soviet Union but one couldn't help wondering why churches were regarded as a curiosity.

Mr. Khrushchev may have forgotten that earlier in the day he had told President Eisenhower he couldn't accompany him to church at Gettysburg because the people in the Soviet Union would be "shocked" if he went.

Why, if there's freedom of worship, would it shock anyone to see the Soviet Premier in a church with the President of the United States? The answer is that Communism is a doctrine that opposes religion and extols atheism.

The differences between the two systems are not solely economic either.

The chief differences are between liberty and slavery, between a system of free elections and a dictatorship, between a God-given code of morality and the code of Communism in which the end justifies the means.

This includes an outpouring of high sounding phrases about "peaceful coexistence" and plenty of smiles and handshakes and a worldwide propaganda that is insincere on its face.

What Khrushchev really wants is materialistic. He is after our strategic goods—just as Hitler was in the 1930's—and the Sovit leader may make a few concessions here and there to get such trade opened up.

But the cold war will go on primarily because the Communists want it to continue. Where there is no fundamental moral sense on one side there can be no mutual trust.

Test For Teen-Agers

By David Barnett

Try these on the teen-ager in your house: Fourteen grams of calcium oxide were treated in a solution containing 35 grams of nitric acid. How many grams of salt were formed?

How long will it take to heat one litre of water from 20 degrees Centigrade to 100 degrees in an electric teapot with a capacity of 600 watts, if its efficiency is 80 per cent?

The questions are courtesy of Vice Adm. Hyman G. Rickover, the Soviet government and the United States Office of Education.

They are the more simple parts of a sleeper best seller turned out by the House Appropriations Committee.

Last Aug. 18, Adm. Rickover, the prime mover in U.S. development of the atomic submarine, appeared behind closed doors to tell the congressmen about Soviet education.

He had recently returned from a tour of Russia and Poland with Vice President Richard Nixon. In effect, he told the lawmakers the Soviets were ahead of the United States in "genuine education."

To support his case, he put into the record the final examinations given at the Russian 10-year school. Originally obtained by the U.S. Office of Education, the exam paper is crammed with such technical terminology as Bezout's theorem, the Joule-Lenz law and Stoletov's work on the photoelectric effect.

Adm. Rickover said he hoped "American parents and teachers will look at these exams and realize that our children are being short-changed."

The transcript containing the exam was quietly released by the committee in printed form a few days ago. Normal circulation for such a hearing is 1,000 copies. Within 10 days, however, the committee sent out on request more than 5,000 copies of the transcript and other requests are coming in by the hundreds. Some 4,000 printed copies are still available and the committee obtained funds to print 10,000 more.

Usually, the Soviet student is 17 years old when he takes the examination. He must pass in seven subjects: Russian language and literature, a foreign language, algebra, geometry, physics, chemistry and history.

The Soviet system puts considerable pressure on the student to stuff his head with enough information to pass the test. If he does poorly, his happy days in school are over and he becomes a worker, a peasant or a soldier.

Neither Adm. Rickover nor the committee provided the answers to the questions. But any high school graduate should be able to work out the correct solutions.

Well, any college graduate, maybe.

China is about one and one-fourth times larger than the United States.

Segregation Of Mentally Ill, Retarded Urged By Governor

WOOSTER, Ohio (AP) — Gov. Michael V. DiSalle said during a surprise visit to nearby Apple Creek State Hospital Tuesday that mentally ill and mentally retarded patients at the hospital should be segregated.

Understaffing is another condition at the hospital that should be corrected, he said.

The hospital population is slowly being changed from a combination of ill and retarded patients to all retarded.

"This must be made into a one-purpose institution as soon as possible," the governor told Dr. William G. Stover, the hospital superintendent. "You need a lot of help and we're going to try to get it for you."

DiSalle pointed out that Apple Creek has only 19 registered nurses for 2,300 patients while at Tiffin State Hospital there are 22 nurses for 800 patients.

He also noted that the Apple Creek hospital is 30 per cent overpopulated.

"We've got to stop admitting people who don't belong here," he said of the hospital's 175 to 200 senile patients who are not 'subject to psychiatric treatment.

Dr. Stover told the governor that segregation of the ill and retarded patients would mean further overcrowding and would entail considerable trouble and expense.

He also said the hospital could use 10 psychiatrists. It now has only one fully trained psychiatrist and three or four medical doctors with some psychiatric training.

City's Lashed By Rainstorm

department, she said. An inventory was being made to determine the damage to the dresses, blouses and other women's apparel.

Arthur Hill, manager of Siffs, said the damage at his store would amount to several hundred dollars. The shoes and floor of one window display were heavily damaged by the foot of water which backed up in the window. The water came through the ceiling, he said.

Lightning hit the rear of the Crook Furniture Co. building at 112 E. 5th St., knocking about 12 to 14 bricks from the firewall to the alley.

Firemen said James Morgan, 38, of 1000 Avondale St. suffered a fractured leg when he fell from a ladder at the Turf Bar, 617 Broadway, while going up to the roof.

Morgan is in "good" condition today at City Hospital. Firemen said water started pouring through the flat roof of the tavern during the heighth of the storm. Bill Patrick, owner, borrowed a ladder from Central Station to inspect the damage. While Patrick was on the roof, Morgan started to climb up and the ladder kicked out at the bottom, causing him to fall to the pavement. The ladder also broke.

Firemen said they also received a call to New York Restaurant, 509 Market St., when water started backing up in the cellar.

Firemen said heavy damage resulted to the studios and offices of radio station WOHI on the second floor of a four - story building on the Diamond after water backed up on the flat roof during the storm and poured down through the ceilings and between the wall partitions. Clogged roof drains were seen as the cause.

Firemen devised a chute from two tarpaulins, pike poles and a ladder to divert some of the water out of a fourth - floor window. But part of the flood worked its way between the walls and through the ceilings of the remaining three floors.

Firemen used shovels to scoop up the water on each floor. Several large pieces of ceiling fell. The station remained on the air, although its studio control equipment was covered to keep out water falling from above.

A small amount of water was blown into the basement of the J. C. Penney Co. store on E. 5th St. through an old freight chute but did no damage, the management said. It took about an hour to mop it up.

The rushing water crept underneath the new blacktop pavement on E. 5th St. at Sugar St., creating a "bubble" about 15 feet square that rose 8 to 10 inches above the level of the street.

The pavement settled back into place after the rain subsided, so there apparently was no major damage, Safety-Service Director Joseph F. Ross said. It has not been determined if the section of pavement will have to be replaced, but cracks and breaks will be sealed until a final decision is made, the director said.

Storm water rushing along Sugar St. apparently crept under the edge of the pavement, the director said. Traffic was detoured around the spot until the blacktop settled.

At the height of the storm, water flowed curb deep on many hillside streets. Slag and ashes were washed off many unsurfaced streets. Much of the flooding resulted from overloaded or clogged storm sewer drops.

A total of 3,700 subscribers were without telephone service for several hours when 2 different cables were damaged during the storm, according to T. Fred Edwards, manager of the Ohio Bell Telephone Co.

Lightning struck the cable crossing the Chester Bridge about 5:30, effecting 2,600 customers in Chester. Another 1,100 phones went out of service about the same time in the area running from North Side to Fredericktown when a tree limb rubbed a hole in the main cable.

Edwards said all Chester service was restored at 11:35 p. m. after the crew worked about 6 hours. He said the lightning burned through the cable in a manhole at the bridge. The cable runs beneath the bridge flooring.

A large hole was rubbed through the casing on the cable serving North Side. This allowed the internal pressure to escape and water to get in. All the lines had to be dried and the cable capped. Service was restored by 10:38 p. m., Edwards said.

Some calls were received as to individual service being affected.

The Ohio Power Co. said it suffered no major damage. Most of the street light service in the downtown area was out for about two hours when lighting went through a line and into the control system, according to William Black, district manager.

He said the lightning also blew three transformer fuses serving individual or small groups of homes.

At Chester, streets were filled with water, causing some damage in flooded cellars and in stores on Carolina Ave.

Volunteer firemen pumped water out of the Faulk Brothers Co. store at Carolina Ave. and 5th St., while water works employes used pumps in removing water from the Tice Grocery Store of Carolina Ave. between 1st and 2nd Sts. and a home in the Mill Addition.

About $300 damage was caused at the Faulk store when the water seeped into merchandise, a spokesman said.

Water ran curb - to - curb during the rain, and motorists had to stop at times because of obscured vision.

Telephone service was out for about six hours, and firemen remained at the City Hall to answer any alarms which might be reported.

The precipitation was estimated for the city as Dam 8 at Newell recorded only 0.25 inch from the storm and intermittent showers that continued most of the night.

It saved September from going into the record books as the driest such month in the 60-some-year history of the U. S. Weather Station at Millport.

Edwin Copeland, weather observor, said the total precipitation during the night was only 0.17 inch, raising the month's total to 0.45 inch. September 1903 had only 0.4 inch, and September 1908 0.45 and September 1926 but 0.5 inch.

Motorists reported leaving the city at the peak of the storm and finding Calcutta dry, only a drizzle at Smiths Ferry and a few sprinkles at Glenmoor.

Another reported going out of the storm at Silvers Switch and finding persons burning leaves at the curb in lower Wellsville although other parts of the city had rain.

However, showers this morning were general and more were forecast for this afternoon and tonight with cooler temperatures.

Today's high range will be a milder 65 to 70 degrees and tonight's low 52 to 57. Thursday will continue cool.

MRS. VIRGINIA STANLEY

Hancock School Guidance Head To Analyze Tests

Results are expected within two weeks of primary mental ability tests administered to 800 first grade students in the Hancock County school system by Mrs. Virginia Stanley, new guidance and testing director.

A native of Hugo, Okla., Mrs. Stanley is Hancock County's such director and was employed early this month by the Board of Education.

The results will indicate the "readiness" of the first graders for primary school subjects and help decide which should have waited another year to enter school.

Beginning with the 1960-61 term, pupils entering the first grade for the initial time must be 6 years old by midnight, Oct. 31 to be eligible. Present rules allow youngsters who will be 6 by Jan. 31, 1960 to enter the first grade.

County achievement tests will be administered by Mrs. Stanley later this year to see if the county pupils are on a level with the national average in terms of ability to learn.

Mrs. Stanley received her bachelor of arts degree from Oklahoma City University and her master's degree from the University of West Virginia. She is in favor of one counseling director for every 250 county students, or 28 counselors in all.

The station wagon, driven by Clarence Lennens of Pyramus St., a fireman, collided with a car driven south on 3rd St. by Curtis Sayre of Middle Run Rd.

Alvin (Pete) Arner of Carolina Ave. was administering mouth-to-mouth artificial respiration to the youngster at the time and they were transferred into the Arner Funeral Homes ambulance which took them to the hospital.

Jerrold Wilson, 254 Louisiana Ave., part-time employe of Arner's, had followed the emergency vehicle with the ambulance because he felt it might be needed, he said later.

Fire Chief Raymond Gibbs and the parents of the child and the others in the emergency car escaped injury, as did Sayre. The crash damaged the station wagon extensively, witnesses said.

Chief Gibbs said the flasher signal on the vehicle was operating and the siren was sounding, but the heavy rain apparently deadened the sound of the siren. He said both vehicles were moving slowly. Sayre was driving a 1957 sedan.

Firemen received the call for their equipment at 4:54. Neighbors of the Cavallaros first thought lightning had struck the home, injuring someone inside.

The firemen used their resuscitation equipment immediately on the child, who had been removed to the livingroom.

The child was born Oct. 28, 1955.

Besides her parents and a sister, Judith Louise, 5 months old, survivors include the maternal grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Agostini, and a great-grandmother, Mrs. David Agostini, all of Bellaire, and the paternal grandfather, Gennaro Cavallaro of Martins Ferry.

Services will be held Friday morning at 9 at the Sacred Heart Catholic Church with Fr. Robert Rooney, assistant pastor, officiating. Burial will be in Locust Hill Cemetery.

Friends may call Thursday afternoon and evening at the Arner Chester Chapel.

If you can't swing that new linoleum right now, here's a quick, easy and happy solution.

New Car Production Periled In Strike At Chrysler Plant

DETROIT (AP)—A labor dispute at Chrysler Corp.'s new stamping plant in Twinsburg, Ohio, threatened today to cut drastically production of 1960 model cars while idling 45,000 employes in seven states.

The plant was struck Tuesday by 3,500 members of United Auto Workers Local 122.

John D. Leary, a Chrysler vice president, said Tuesday night that 25,000 employes, most of them in the Detroit area, will be sent home by tonight. He said an additional 20,000 will be given layoff notices by Friday night.

Leary said loss of essential body stamping production at the Twinsburg plant would affect workers at plants in Michigan, Ohio, Indiana, Missouri, California, Delaware and New York.

The Twinsburg plant has had 18 body parts for virtually every Chrysler model.

The Twinsburg plant has ahd 18 strikes since it was opened two years ago. Previous strikes were not authorized but the UAW said the latest strike was authorized by the international union.

In the current dispute, Twinsburg workers walked out Sept. 2 complaining about safety and working conditions. They went back to work after staying out briefly, but walked out again after the company fired 12 employes.

The international union ordered the strikers back to work and set a 12-day negotiating period. The membership of the local Sunday rejected a company proposal to put the 12 men who had been disciplined on suspension instead of firing them.

The company said grievances over safety and working conditions had been settled. The union denied this.

West Virginia Mental Health Department Seeks $2 Million

CHARLESTON (AP) — The Mental Health Department wants to spend about two million dollars on capital improvements at St. Marys Training School and Weston and Lakin State Hospitals.

The agency's budget request for the next fiscal year to begin next July 1, gives this breakdown:

St. Marys — $693,500, including $450,000 for a crib ward dormitory for mentally retarded youngsters and $150,000 for a kitchen and dining hall.

Weston — $430,000, with $200,000 earmarked for a recreation center, $65,000 for a new bakery and $40,000 for a three - bedroom superintendent's house.

Lakin — $667,000, including $500,000 for renovation of a male ward building.

Still to be included are proposed capital improvements at Huntington State Hospital. The Huntington request had been sent back to the institution for some revision. No requests were made for additional building improvements at Barboursville and Spencer mental hospitals.

The department also wants to substitute higher pay for a system under which maintenance and cash are included in employe wages. It has asked for about $600,000 more to put this plan into effect.

That amount, however, actually isn't as large as it seems, Director Richard Lilly explained. The state would get back a considerable amount — possible around $300,000 — from employes who still wanted to eat and live at the institutions.

At present, it was explained, a mental hospital might be able to pay a monthly cash salary of $155 to an attendant whose pay should be $201. But by also providing maintenance, the salary could be brought to $201.

Heidelberg College Gets $550,000 Loan

Scheduled for construction is a dormitory to house 125 women students. The building will include an attached wing for the dining facilities.

City Receives $11,154 Grant

East Liverpool will receive a federal grant of $11,154.67 as partial reimbursement for funds spent in repair of municipal facilities damaged by an Ohio River flood in February, city officials were notified Tuesday.

Word of the grant was sent in a letter to James Walker, city Civil Defense director, from Thane M. Durey, deputy director of the Adjutant General's Department of the Ohio CD organization at Ft. Hayes in Columbus.

The Ohio CD was in charge of the allocation of funds to local subdivisions which filed claims for reimbursement for flood damage. Walker passed on Durey's letter to Mayor Fred P. Lawrence and Safety-Service Director Joseph Ross.

The city's application for aid fixed total damage at $21,000 — mostly to the blacktop pavement and guardrails along the River Rd.

State CD officials have asked the federal government for an advance sufficient to pay 75 per cent of the amount granted each subdivision, Durey's letter said. Before the final payment can be made, the city must back up its claim by furnishing records of the expense, including copies of bills, invoices, payrolls and contracts.

When East Liverpool repaired its flood damage, the cost was paid out of local funds, with the expectation that at least part would be repaid later out of the federal emergency grant.

IN ADDITION to Bryan, fire department representatives attending were: Asst. Chief James Pelley of East Liverpool, Chief Kenneth Mills of Glenmoor, Chief Laverne Seckman of Calcutta, Chief Randall Roach of Lawrenceville, Chief James Durham of Newell, Chief Ed Emmerling of Liverpool Township and Asst. Chief Harry Smith of the Liverpool East station in Dixonville and Asst. Chief Homer Cronin of the Liverpool West department in LaCroft.

Pelley helped outline East Liverpool's program. The area chiefs joined in a general discussion of fire prevention work.

In addition to Arner and Allison, members of the safety committee are: Alvin Arner Jr., Judson English, Dr. J. A. Fraser, Richard W. Lee, Robert Miller, Glen V. Wilson, representing fire underwriters, and Safety-Service Director Joseph F. Ross.

Crash Blamed On City Storm

The torrential rain late Tuesday afternoon was blamed for at least one of the four traffic mishaps reported to East Liverpool police.

John F. Bryer, 54, of Fisher Park, told police he slowed his 1954 sedan on Pennsylvania Ave. about 5:10 because of the downpour and it was hit from the rear by an auto driven by Lawrence Channels, 2207 Ohio Ave. Police said the report of the collision is incomplete, as Channels is to furnish more details.

Bryer was driving a car owned by Acme Craft Ware, Inc., of Lisbon and 3rd Sts., Wellsville, police said.

A collision on E. 6th St. about 100 feet east of Broadway at 4:36 p. m. yesterday damaged a 1957 two-door sedan driven by Pauline Tice, 1646 Pennsylvania Ave., and a parked 1953 sedan owned by James Buckley, 947 Lisbon St., police said. The woman driver told police her brakes failed as she was attempting to halt for a traffic light at Walnut and E. 6th Sts. She attempted to drift the car backward on the sidewalk to avoid a collision, but hit the parked car, she said. The sides of both vehicles were scraped, officers said.

A collision at E. 6th St. and Broadway at 8:33 p. m. damaged two-door sedans driven by Thomas W. Bobbert, 21, of 107½ E. 6th St. and Vaughn S. Rose, 34, of 728 St. Clair Ave., police said. Bobbert said he did not see the traffic light and went through the intersection, hitting the right side of the Rose car. Police said Bobbert will be charged with reckless driving.

Clarence E. Kent, 721 Pennsylvania Ave., told police the left side and front of his 1959 sedan were damaged early today after he loaned it to Howard Kent of the same address. No further details were reported immediately, officers said.

Thief Obtains 'Record' Haul; It's All Paper

It must have been a very disappointed thief who examined his haul after lifting a bulky briefcase out of a parked car on Mulberry St. Tuesday night.

He literally got a "record" haul —the briefcase contained nothing but records of the East Liverpool Barbershop Quartet Society, police said.

William E. Brooks, 1576 Globe St., president of the singing group, said he parked his auto on Mulberry St. about 9 and discovered the loss when he returned at 10:45.

A witness told police he saw a man take the briefcase out of the car and walk north on Mulberry St. He furnished officers with a detailed description of the man.

Another abortive theft attempt was reported to police Tuesday by the management of M. & A. Motors of Pennsylvania Ave. A thief removed a radio from a 1953 model car on the company's used car lot at 1600 Pennsylvania Ave. sometime Monday night or early Tuesday, but the radio was found on the ground alongside the auto the next morning, the company said.

Another theft was reported by the concern at the same time. A thief removed two fender-mounted rear view mirrors from another auto on the used car lot between 5 p. m. and 9 a. m. Monday.

County Commissioners Ask Support Of Home Bond Issue

LISBON — Columbiana County commissioners have sent out approximately 425 appeals to civic, fraternal, and religious groups in the county, urging support of the bond issue on the November ballot to erect a new county home. The letter reads:

"It should be a known fact at this time, due to publicity given the situation, that the Columbiana County Home is in a very bad state of disrepair and will continue to get worse.

Cost estimates to bring it to a state of repair demanded by the state inspector for the Industrial Commission of Ohio would amount to approximately $35,000. This would be a makeshift measure only, and in a few years more repairs would be needed, throwing good money after bad.

"The population at the County Home, according to the last report submitted by the superintendent for the month of August, was 80 males and 42 females. The conditions under which these senior citizens have to live is unthinkable. Certainly, one living to an advanced age in this modern era merits better consideration.

"The Board of Commissioners of Columbiana County righteously wishes to correct these intolerable conditions, and can only do so with your help.

"The board is extending to members of your organization an invitation to visit and tour the county infirmary so that you can see for yourselves at first hand the conditions that exist and the very necessary steps that should be taken to alleviate them.

"There has been placed on the ballot in the general election in November a levy proposed to produce funds with which to build new living quarters for our aged citizens who must of necessity live at the County Home.

"This is a matter for all civic-minded citizens to acquaint themselves with, and lend their support to better the condition of the residents of the County Home.

"Will the members of your organization kindly attend the inspection trips planned by the commissioner Oct. 5-15?

"Your personal aid and influence is invaluable in helping to make this worthwhile cause a success.

"It is not only to be considered an economic measure, saving money in the long run, but most of all it is humanitarian as well.

"If you will let us know in advance when you plan to make an inspection trip through the County Home, arrangements will be made for ample guide service.

"If a prior date is difficult for you to establish, please be assured you will be welcome on any day between Oct. 5-15, even though at times a guide may not be available."

Source Of Sickening Fumes Still Unknown

WEIRTON — Engineers are "stumped" today as to the source of gas fumes that caused sickness to 13 persons Tuesday but an investigation is continuing in the area of 2nd St.

Only one of the 13 persons who became ill by inhalation of gas-fumes — Gilliam Currenton — remains hospitalized today.

The fumes struck five adjacent homes in Weirton's north end Monday night. The homes are near a Weirton Steel Co. plant which melts iron ore.

Safety examiners from the steel firm and John Ferguson, Weirton fire chief, made a futile search of the area for gas leakage.

Ferguson theorizes that atmospheric conditions which kept a cloud cover over the area might have concentrated enough toxic fumes to overcome the victims. However, a blood check of several victims did not disclose any presence of carbon monoxide.

Nitrogen, phosphorus and potassium are the three elements most important in fertilizers.

Car And Truck Crash Causes Minor Damage

SALEM — Minor damage resulted in a car-truck collision on Route 45 three miles south Tuesday, involving Lisbon and Columbiana drivers.

The State Highway Patrol at Lisbon said a truck, driven by Paul Jones, 20, of Columbiana, attempted to make a left turn as a car driven by Robert E. Robb, 26, of 314 W. Lincoln Way, Lisbon, sought to pass. No one was injured, officers said.

Oldsmobile Presents New Styling

Harry Y. George of Litten Motor Sales announced today that the 1960 Oldsmobiles will go on display at his showroom, 433 Walnut St., Thursday.

The "98" Holiday Sceni-Coupe is shown above.

New crisply - tailored styling and a new balance of design are teamed with further advances in economy of operation in the 17 new models, Jack F. Wolfram, general manager of Oldsmobile and a vice president of General Motors, said.

He pointed out that the Oldsmobile features a redesigned Rocket engine in the Dynamic "88" series for use with lower-cost regular grade gasoline.

"This engine," Wolfram said, "will give our customers an improvement of 15 per cent in miles per dollar — maintaining excellent performance."

In all series there are new rear axle ratios and many other engineering advancements. Two three-seat Fiestas have been added to Oldsmobile's station wagon line.

"From the trim curved grille to the clean-sweep of the rear deck, the 1960 Oldsmobile is the finest automobile we have ever built," Wolfram continued.

"The balanced design of the car is new from every view—front, side and rear. We believe the new Oldsmobile has the styling our customers want, the full-family spaciousness they need and the luxurious interiors they asked," he said.

Bright chrome plated bars in groups of three give the curved grille a wide, stable look even though the car itself is no wider than the 1959 models. Headlights are placed horizontally with the outboard pair set slightly behind the inboard pair. The parking lights are safely recessed in the wrap-around section of the bumper where they can be easily seen from front or side.

The lower and slightly rounded styling of the new front end aids maneuverability, Wolfram said, especially in tight parking situations. Maneuverability is increased 2¼ to 3½ inches.

The flowing lines are emphasized by an attractive chrome accent strip which starts at the headlight on the front fender, sweeps back to the rear quarter where it dips down to the lower edge and rearward to the new bumper.

Taillights are molded into the rear fenders in a high, easy-to-see position. Below the attractive angled bumper is ribbed heavy gauge steel that completes the solid, built-to-the-road appearance of the new rear end.

Oldsmobile has developed a new balance of power and economy for 1960 in the Dynamic "88" series, Wolfram said.

Kent Courses Open For 80

The first college courses ever offered in East Liverpool started Monday night when the initial session of the East Liverpool Center of Kent State University was held.

Approximately 80 students registered for the fall quarter for courses in 4 fields. The actual enrollment still hasn't been determined because some of the students are taking more than one course, Supt. Ralph W. Betts, charman of the advisory committee of the Eastern Ohio Council for Higher Education, said.

The highest number in any class was in introduction to education with 31 students. The class is being taught by Asst. Supt. Paul Blair.

Forty-four signed up in 2 English composition classes with 37 in 2 classes on the history of education and 17 in introduction to business management.

Classes will be held each Monday and Wednesday nights at the high school with the fall quarter ending Dec. 16.

The other instructors are Chester Brautigam of Salem and J. R. Judy and Charles Soltis of the KSU faculty.

Brautigam, principal of Salem Junior High and a former instructor in KSU's Warren center, is teaching the English courses with Judy instructing in history and Soltis teaching the business administration course.

Group Named By Principals

A three-member committee was appointed to prepare a constitution and bylaws when the Hancock County Principals' Association met Monday night in the Newell Jefferson School.

Ernest John, principal of Jefferson School, presided.

The committee includes George Campbell of Weirton Liberty, Inez Orler of Weirton Elementary and Taimi Mahl of Marlin Heights. The group chose A. R. Evans of Weirton to represent the organization at meetings of the County Education Association.

In other business, the length of the school day in the county system was discussed and meeting dates for the remainder of the school year were set. Plans were also discussed on a proposed summer school.

Meeting dates selected are Nov. 30, Jan. 25, and April 25. The November and April meetings will include dinner to be served at Chester High High School and Weirton High School, respectively.

The home economics class of Chester High School will serve dinner at the next meeting Nov. 30.

Weirton Vet Speaker

WEIRTON — Ed Hartman of Weirton, national commander of the 80th Division of the Veterans Association, was guest speaker at a past commanders' club dinner Tuesday night in Philadelphia.

Names Of Lobbyists, Reports Due McElroy

COLUMBUS, Ohio (AP)—A list of registered lobbyists and their expense statements is being readied for Atty. Gen. Mark McElroy.

Secretary of State Ted W. Brown, who is setting up the list, reported that less than 40 of the 387 lobbyists registered for the 103rd General Assembly session have failed to file the required expense statement. Some listed no receipts and no expenditures.

Statute provides a maximum fine of $500 and two years in prison for violation of the lobby reporting law.

Preparation of the list for McElroy followed a Franklin County grand jury probe of lobbying activities.

What To Do When Pounds Refuse To Budge

What measures are most effective during the "leveling off" period when the pounds refuse to budge? This question is asked frequently in the fall by dieters who reduced during the summer and are two-thirds of the way to normal weight.

Ida Jean Kain

When you reach a weight plateau, be assured that your reducing course is running true to form. Regard this lull in losing as a chance to stabilize your weight at this new lower level.

There are three measures which can help you to resume losing. One is to drop down to 800 calories for a two-day period only. The second measure is to change the character of the diet, stepping up the protein.

THE THIRD MEASURE is to step up exercise. The rate of weight loss is determined by the difference between calories used and the number consumed. Calories cannot safely be cut too low, but exercise can step up the burning.

And here's a happy thought—while you are holding the weight at this level, with precision calisthentics, you can go right along toning your muscles and losing inches. The added advantage of regular exercise is that it helps to keep the pounds off. Toned muscles rebuff fat.

There is still one other measure which may be used during a weight stand-still. For conscientious dieters who feel depressed, the doctor will sometimes prescribe a euphoric type pill to help lift a dieter's mood and bring a sense of well-being.

To this dietician's way of thinking, the three-quarters period is the right time for such help, rather than at the beginning of the diet. Anything of this sort should be used for a week or two only. It is newly established food habits, not a pill, that does the reducing.

In any reducing program, it is important to eat three meals a day so as to take advantage of the specific dynamic action of food. The effect of food in raising the metabolism above the basal level is called its specific dynamic action.

The metabolism begins to rise about an hour after a meal is eaten, continues to rise for about three hours, then decreases. Protein causes the greatest rise in metabolism.

—:—

FROM THE ABOVE explanation, it is easy to figure that on three meals a day the metabolism is kept elevated for many hours. This explains how it is possible to lose more weight by dividing the day's calories into three meals than it is if the bulk of calories are eaten at one big meal, say at dinner.

During this period a daily walk plus regular non-strenuous calisthenics will help you to resume reducing while eating enough food to feel satisfied and happy.

Send a stamped, self-addressed long envelope for "Revised Calorie Chart." Address request to Ida Jean Kain in care of this newspaper. Post card requests can not be answered.

U.S. Eyes Ways To Improve U.S.-Russia Trade Relations

WASHINGTON (AP) — U.S. officials are considering a series of possible measures to improve trade relations between the Soviet Union and the United States in the wake of the Eisenhower-Khrushchev talks.

Soviet Premier Nikita Khrushchev said last week trade improvement could be considered one test of U.S. good will in promoting world peace.

Nevertheless officials believe that any large increase in the exchange of goods between the two countries is out of the question.

The reason given boils down to this: the United States does not need large volume of raw materials such as chrome and manganese which the U.S.S.R. would be able to sell, because it gets them from other sources. Nor will this country grant huge credits to Moscow to finance what it wants to buy here.

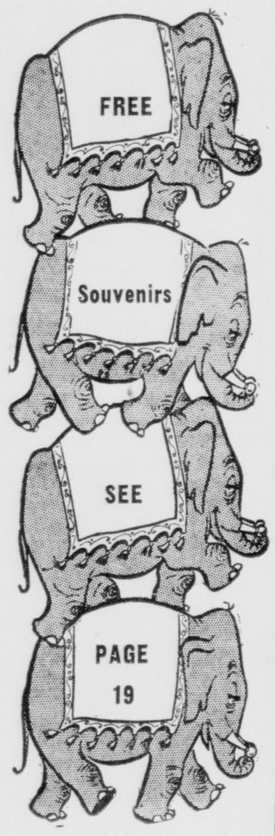

The Soviet Union is more interested in buying whole factories than it is in purchasing consumer goods or even materials of immediate strategic importance.

It wants factories which could be put into production of primarily consumer goods in the Soviet Union. It is particularly anxious to build up its chemical and plastics industries. It wants long-term credits to pay for them.

U.S. officials are thinking in much more limited terms.

Among developments under consideration is removal of embargoes on crab meat and a variety of furs which the Soviet Union has to sell.

There is also some talk among officials of narrowing the list of items which are prohibited for shipment to the Soviet Union.

Burned-Out Family's Furnishings Sought

The Calcutta volunteer fire department appealed today for furnishings and household linens for the family of Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Glendening, whose home on St. Clair Ave. Ext. and all contents were destroyed in a fire Monday. They had little insurance.

Norman Neal, president, said the family needs especially a refrigerator, gas range and breakfast set. Bed clothing, linens, towels and similar articles will help. The firemen said persons may phone FU. 5-7356 and firemen will pick up the furniture.

Glendening, a Crucible Titanium Division employe, has been on strike 11 weeks and his wife's earnings in a Chester plant meet only household expenses, as they have two children, Neal said. The family has rented a vacant home in Bloomfield. Glendening was buying his home on a GI loan and will try eventually to buy another as the house was burned beyond repair.

Ohioan Faces Federal Charge For Forgery

HUNTINGTON, W. Va. (AP) — Charles G. Rhodes of Proctorville, Ohio, whose trial on a forgery charge ended in a jury disagreement Sept. 10, has been arrested on a federal warrant in the same case.

Rhodes, former president of the West Virginia Realtors Assn., is charged with forging the name of Dr. Glen C. Dowell of Carrollton, Ohio, to secure a $19,852 loan on an apartment building.

B. C. Brown, special agent in charge of the FBI office at Pittsburgh, said the complaint was filed by U. S. Atty. Duncan W. Daugherty of Huntington.

Rhodes waived further hearing before the U.S. commissioner and was released on $2,000 bond.

Out Of The Air

By JOHN CROSBY

Reshaped 'Body And Soul'

Eliot Asinof is a former professional baseball player, who had a spell selling suits in the family clothing business, and now a writer — a confusing progression.

John Crosby

Asinof did the adaption of "Body and Soul," first of the adaptations of fine movies which Du Pont presented Monday night on CBS-TV. "Body and Soul," in fine movie starring John Garfield, was about a young Jewish boy who fought his way up from the slums in a desperate search for wealth and recognition. Mr. Asinof has made some sweeping changes.

"I changed 'Body and Soul' because the scene is different today. Now in 1959, there's a fresh kind of nervousness. There's another layer added to culture in America. The struggle is not to get money any more; it's the way you get it that's important and what you're going to do with it afterward.

"It's the status we're concerned with today, the kind of living we make. No young kid from the East Side will have trouble earning a living today."

-:-

ALL OF WHICH is a prelude to the fact that the young fighter was not a Jew on TV; he was a Puerto Rican (played by Ben Gazzara).

"The boxing profession always had been a recorder of social trends, if you think about it," Mr. Asinof said. "The lowest economic strata has most deeply populated the ranks of the prize fighters—first the Irish, then the Italians, then Jews, then Negroes, now Puerto Ricans."

But it's not just race Mr. Asinof is changing: he's changing just about everything:

"No dialogue remains from the picture. Few of the characters are similar. Certainly the hero's motivation is different. It has to be different — once you bring in a new writer, another time, another actor, a different nationality.

"The similarity is that if a man is good at his job, it does not mean that all good things will come to him. There are forces in society which are bigger than he is and the best he can do is to try and understand them.

"Am I cynical? Yes, this is cynical writing. These days it is popular to call it angry writing—but it is not angry, it is cynical.

"The men who handle boxing today are not gangsters; they are businessmen. Gangsterism is passe. They are corrupt men who will sell other men out. In the play Franchot Tone played the businessman crook, otherwise known as the promoter."

-:-

THESE ARE strong words, but there is a ring of absolute honesty about them. Asinof is a remarkably candid, and fearless, thinker and his ideas on show business in general I find stimulating, shocking and very much in need of statement.

The best part of TV writing, Mr. Asinof thinks, is the original idea. After that, the watering-down process starts and the idea goes steadily downhill.

AFTER FLAMES SUBSIDED. Burned to the ground, so to speak were these two vehicles among casualties of the fire of the wrecked gas tanker rig at Industry Tuesday. The 1959 station wagon, owned by Ernest J. Lee, was destroyed for a loss of $3,500 and the 1958 convertible in the lower picture also was a total loss, estimated at $2,500. James D. Taylor, also of Industry, purchased the auto a week ago.

$37,570 Fire Damage Seen to the Harper home where the paint on the front and garage doors was blistered.

The load of gasoline was valued at $1,615 and the Duquesne Light Co. estimated $200 damage to 1,200 feet of copper wiring directly above the flaming rig.

Virtually every fire department in the immediate area was summoned to aid in the battle. They included Industry Township, Midland Midland Heights, Ohio Township, Vanport, Ohio View and Beaver.

Sockaci had pulled away from the Socony Mobil Oil Co.'s bulk plant at Midland and was en route to Beaver Falls. As he rounded the bend at the junction of Route 68 and Wolf Run Rd. at noon, the truck apparently veered onto the berm, ripping out several guard posts, sideswiping the station wagon and finally coming to a halt with the cab over the steep embankment beside a highway bridge crossing the run.

Just minutes before, Mrs. Lee had parked the station wagon across the road from the Craft Grocery and entered the store, passing Taylor and Lambert who were talking.

Taylor's convertible was parked in front of the grocery along with Summers' car, which was driven by Lambert. The Craft cars were parked at the side of the grocery.

Just as Mrs. Lee reached the back of the store, she said she heard the crash and looked out the window. "The back end of the truck was a big wall of flame," she said.

Mrs. Lee said, "Mr. Craft told us to get out the back door and we ran out." She notified her husband she was safe and went to their home, nearly a quarter of a mile away, where the "heat was terrific."

Meanwhile, observing the crash, Taylor and Lambert raced to see if anyone was in the station wagon and then hurried to aid the driver. Just as they arrived, Socaci rolled out of the cab.

"Get out of here!," the dazed 31-year-old driver screamed at the pair, scratching both their arms as he frantically shoved them away.

"We knew it was going to blow," Taylor commented calmly," and we kept him in front of us as we ran because we realized he was in shock."

As the flames soared some 300 feet into the air and thick, black smoke covered the area, the roof of the store caught fire along with the autos and the paint at the Jamrozik home started to blister.

The fire burned through the power lines, cutting off electrical service, including the township's fire siren but residents hastily telephoned volunteers, many of whom already were aware of the near holocaust.

A spectator woman said, "You never saw people run so fast in your life. Someone called the telephone operator and told her to send everything available."

Lee, who was working at his cement block plant nearby and a member of the fire department, credited the prompt arrival of the firemen with saving two filling stations and a home.

As volunteers arrived with the township's two fire trucks, some began pouring water on the Jamrozik house to save it and also "Watered down" a service station operated by Archie Suttles located on the east side of Wolf Run directly opposite the burning tractor-trailer.

Other firemen directed a line to quell the fire on the roof of the Craft store but all had to flee several hundred feet away when a compartment of high octane gas "let go," Lee said.

Meanwhile, other departments arrived and began fighting the flames. Firemen continued to pour water on the tractor-trailer and cars more than two hours after the blaze started.

Lee said he believed gasoline striking the motor started the blaze. When the truck wrecked, caps on the various compartments apparently popped open and the gasoline spewed over the rig and truck cab, reaching the hot motor, he explained.

State Police said Sockaci had "no idea" of what happened. "Everything occurred so fast he doesn't know what happened," the officers said.

Some residents said they thought the brakes may have failed, while others said skid marks on the road indicated a wheel may have locked.

Mrs. Lee said she was told the driver was so dazed he didn't realize he had sideswiped the station wagon until he saw it in flames and said, "'I hope no one's in it'."

The Brenner Pass is in the Alps on the border between Italy and Germany.

Work Rules Seen Hurdle To Steel Strike Solution

By SAM DAWSON
AP Business News Analyst

NEW YORK (AP)—Government intervention in the steel strike—if only at the talking level at first—focuses attention today on this year's prime labor issue:

Should working rules be changed to allow cost trimming enough to offset any wage hikes and stave off further price rises?

The public has a stake in that issue, too, just as it has in the plant shutdowns which may soon spread fast as steel stocks dwindle, and may come even after the strike is over, if users run out of steel while waiting for new deliveries.

President Eisenhower is meeting today with top men of steel management and the steel union. If the recognized conciliation expert can get them to bargain in earnest and come up with a contract, the public will want to know as soon as it can two things:

Will the new pact mean another price rise in basic steel or its products, and how much? How quickly can the mills rebuild their customers' stocks and will it be in time to prevent shutdowns in the weeks ahead?

The public will remember that in the past presidential intervention and pressure has more often than not meant higher wages and prices. But this time the President is on record as being firmly set against any further price rises.

If conciliation doesn't do the trick and the Presidents gets a court injunction under the Taft-Hartley act and the mills reopen for 80 days, there are those who question how effective it will prove.

Presumably the disputants will have 80 more days in which to argue without hurting the innocent bystanders.

In that time the steel mills can be pushed hard to help rebuild customers' stocks, and mill workers can start at least to rebuild their individual bank accounts.

But some point out that this will put both sides in better condition at the end of the 80 days than today to go on being stubborn.

Management will face less clamor from its customers. Its stockholders won't be so worried about what's happening to profits. Its suppliers will have had a breather, too.

Union members will have got on good terms again with the grocer and the landlord and may feel they can fight another round of the battle over factory rules.

Bitterness is reported rising among union members of management's demand that it be given back some of the control over mill operations which the union won in recent years. They hold that rule changes could trigger wholesale firings.

Steel management is reported just as set as ever on getting this power back.

So a lot hinges on the President's ability to talk the two sides into a workable compromise without having to turn to Taft-Hartley either to set up a fact-finding board or to seek a court injunction.

State To Start Using Cincinnati Student's Motto

Ohio's new state motto—"With God All Things are Possible"—will be effective Thursday.

The motto was suggested by 12-year-old Jimmy Mastronardo of Cincinnati and adopted by the General Assembly this year.

Young Mastronardo started plugging for his motto when he was 9 and earlier this year Sen. William H. Deddens of Cincinnati took him to Columbus, where he talked with Secretary of State Ted W. Brown about becoming a "lobbyist" and was introduced to members of the Senate and House.

He made numerous appearances before committees and addressed the legislative bodies as a whole in behalf of adoption of the motto, finally winning his point.

It has been 92 years since Ohio had an official motto. "Imperium In Imperio" was adopted in 1865 but the General Assembly repealed the act 2 years later on the grounds that it smacked too much of "empires" and royalty.

The Hamilton County youth received a citation from Secretary Brown and eulogies from Joe E. Brown of motion picture and theatrical fame; Judge Carl W. Rich and Mayor Donald D. Clancy of Cincinnati, when he appeared on an election officials' program conducted by the secretary recently.

The new motto is from the New Testament, Matt. 19:26: "But Jesus beheld them and said unto them, With men this is impossible; but with God all things are possible".

Theodore Roosevelt was known for his prolific writings on the west.

Expansion Of Great Lakes Area Air Routes Proposed

WASHINGTON (AP) — Expansion of air routes for Lake Central and North Central Airlines in the Great Lakes area has been recommended by a Civil Aeronautics Board examiner.

Examiner Barron Fredericks gave the two lines preference Tuesday over Mohawk, Ozark and other airlines that had applied to supply service.

If no exceptions are filed the examiner's decision will become final in 20 days.

He recommended Lake Central be granted a route between Grand Rapids, Mich., and Columbus, Ohio, with stops at Jackson, Mich. Toledo and Mansfield, Ohio.

Mandatory stops would be made at Jackson and Mansfield to prevent non-stop service between Columbus and Toledo and to avoid competition with Capital Airlines' Grand Rapids-Toledo route.

Lake Central had proposed a route from Grand Rapids to Milwaukee but Fredericks recommended this route for North Central. He said there was no need of Lake Central service beyond Grand Rapids.

The examiner also proposed these routes for Lake Central:

1. Between Detroit and Pittsburgh, via Toledo, Sandusky, Cleveland, Akron - Canton and Youngstown.

2. Between Columbus and Baltimore via Zanesville, Ohio, Wheeling and Morgantown, W. Va., and Washington, D. C.

3. Between Cincinnati and Baltimore via Portsmouth, Ohio, Parkersburg, W. Va. - Marietta, Ohio, Clarksburg-Fairmont and Elkins, W. Va.

4. Between Bloomington and Columbus, Ind. and Cincinnati.

5. Between Columbus, Ohio, and Akron-Canton.

6. Between Portsmouth and Columbus.

7. Between Lima, Findlay and Toledo, Ohio, and Detroit.

8. Between Columbus and Cleveland, on a non-stop basis subject to certain conditions.

In other action:

He recommended against service by Lake Central over a Toledo-Terre Haute route via Defiance. He said traffic possibilities in the Defiance-Bryan area do not warrant local service.

Found it would be unnecessary to suspend service by Delta Air Lines at Toledo on its Detroit-Memphis route.

Proposed suspension of American Airlines' authority to serve Elins and Parkersburg - Marietta while Lake Central serves them.

Recommended denial of Mohawk's application for a route extension from Buffalo and Rochester, N. Y. to Cleveland.

DiSalle Cites Personnel Needs For Hospitals

HAMILTON, Ohio (AP) — Gov. Michael V. DiSalle says the state needs more doctors, nurses and social workers for its state institutions.

"We're going to provide a decent standard for our education and our welfare needs," he said in a speech here Tuesday night. The governor spoke at the annual dinner of the Butler County Women's Democratic League.

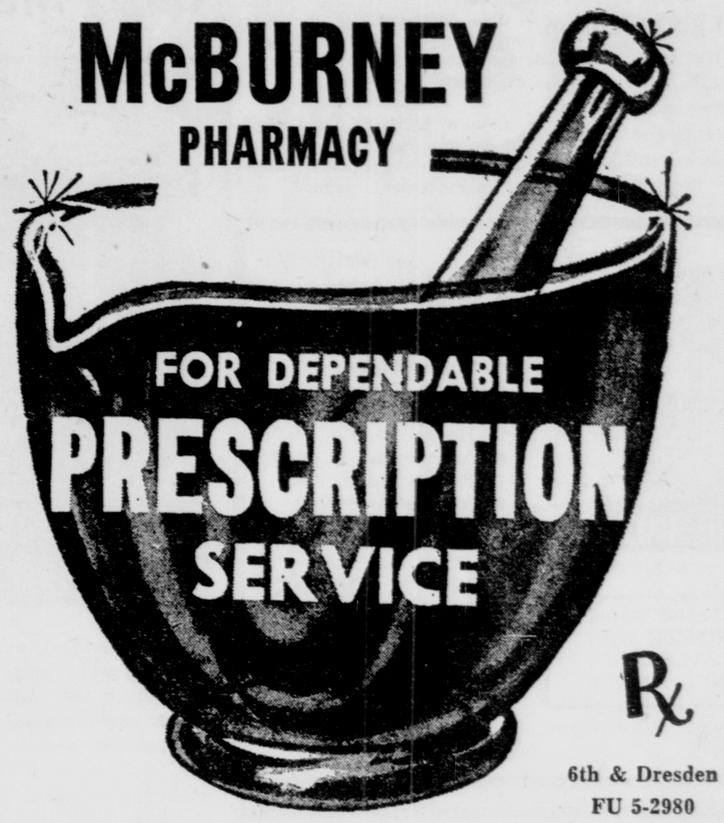

Earlier in the day, he addressed the Ohio Assn. of Real Estate Boards at Cleveland.

Guest Speaker Waited By School Supervisors

Tom O'Keefe, director of research for the Ohio Education Association, will be guest speaker for the Columbiana County School Administrators' dinner meeting at 6:30 (EST) tonight at the Beaver Local Public School.

Administrators from city, village and county schools will attend.

U.S. Tax Collections Dropped $200 Million

WASHINGTON (AP) — Internal revenue collections for the year ended last June 30 dropped $200,000,000 from the previous year's total, the Internal Revenue Service reported Tuesday. Collections totaled $79,799,000,000 for the 1958-59 year.

Ohio collections for the years ended June 30, 1959 and June 30, 1958 were $5,047,385,000 and $5,355,654,000, respectively.

New Pontiac Offers Classic Styling

"Sixteen stunningly new models in four series are presented by Pontiac in 1960, marking the greatest engineering and styling advances ever achieved by our firm," S. E. Knudsen, GM vice president and general manager of Pontiac Motor Division, said in announcing the division's new line of cars.

The Pontiacs will go on display Thursday at M. & A. Motors, East Liverpool; Johnson Pontiac, Wellsville, and Ludovici Pontiac, Chester. The models above are the Bonneville convertible and the Ventura sport coupe.

"Our engineers and stylists have overlooked nothing in their successful efforts to make Pontiac for 1960 the most desirable car that we have ever manufactured," said Knudsen.

Pontiac's classic styling and wide track design prevails throughout each series — from the luxurious Bonneville and Star Chief to the Catalina and the new Ventura series.

Heading a list of 47 new features is the appearance of the new cars, highlighted by a "V" design front end. A massive, sweeping front bumper juts forward below a classical grille formed by seven narrow, gleaming bars with twin headlamps set at either end. The distinctively different grille, the one-piece bumper and the clean, sharp line of the hood enhances the car's overall simplicity and beauty.

Pontiac's low, clean styling is complemented by a Vista - Panoramic windshield and a generous wrap - around rear window, with a low - cut roof.

Pontiac's fresh approach to styling is even more pronounced in the sculptured deck lid and the rear fenders topped by twin dual tail lamps housed in individual cones extending toward the back window. Below each set of tail lamps are long, graceful backup lamp ports framed in chromium. The artistic deck flares downward to blend with a massive wrap-around rear bumper. Below the front fender series name plate on each model a thin-line trim moulding extends the full length of the car. The upper edge of the rear quarter panel is highlighted by a trim moulding.

Priced just above the Catalina series are two Ventura models, a four - door and a two - door hardtop. The two Ventura models have interiors trimmed entirely in colorful, customized Jewel-tone Morrokide available in many different shades to harmonize with exterior finishes.

Fifteen solid paint colors and 60 two - tone combinations are offered with the 1960 Pontiac. Harmonizing with exterior colors are 51 interior color and material combinations of cloth, Morrokide and genuine leather.

Pontiac's instrument panel for 1960 features a new horizontal speedometer, redesigned instruments and control knobs and a non-glare finish on the upper surface.

The new deep dish steering wheel with a hand grip design is positioned to give more leg clearance for the driver. A lower transmission tunnel also provides extra interior roominess.

Funeral To Be Friday For Ex-U.S. Official

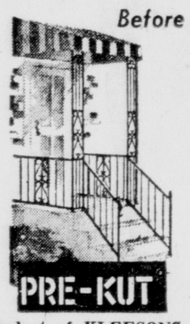

LOS ANGELES (AP)—Funeral services for Donald M. Nelson, U.S. production chief during World War II, will be held at 1 p.m. Friday in the Church of the Hills at Forest Lawn-Hollywood Hills Memorial Park.

Nelson, 70, died in Good Samaritan Hospital Tuesday of a cerebral hemorrhage. He had been under treatment since a stroke Aug. 23.

Sewage Grant OK'd

WASHINGTON (AP)—A grant of $45,000 to South Point, Ohio, has been approved by the Public Health Service. The funds will help finance a $455,000 sewage treatment plant, Rep. Walter H. Moeller (D - Ohio) was advised Tuesday.

Ann Landers

ANSWERS YOUR PROBLEMS

Dear Ann Landers: For the last four years I've been endowed with what a scientist at Duke University terms "extrasensory perception." I can foretell when I'm going to get a letter, a phone call, which elevator will come and sometimes I can even read my roommate's mind.

Although this scares me out of my wits at times, I'm delighted to be so gifted.

I was engaged to a fellow but he told me he's in no position to marry for several years so I broke it off. We meet at parties but he hasn't tried to get me back romantically, although we've had coffee dates.

My sixth sense tells me we will marry. This gives me the strength to see him on his terms. Shall I come right out and tell him I know what's in store for us? Please advise.—E.S.P.

-:-

Dear E.S.P.: I've only got five senses and I'm not too sure about them, so please don't ask me to give advice to someone who can read a roommate's mind and predict which elevator is coming.

Any girl (with or without ESP who tells a boy she knows what the future has in store for him shows a lack of common sense which, in the final analysis, is the best kind after all.

Free, White And 52

Dear Ann: My mother-in-law is thinking seriously of marrying a garage mechanic who is her social inferior. She is 52 and he is 54.

My father-in-law was in the investment business and this new romance of hers, if it develops into anything, will surely hurt her social standing. We've tried to make her understand it's foolish to marry out of her class.

The man is quiet and nothing to write home about. He has a nice house (paid for) and a steady job. Can you say something to open her eyes? She's badly in need of advice.—INTERESTED FAMILY.

-:-

Dear Family: Your mother-in-law didn't ask for my advice and I'll bet she didn't ask for yours either.

A woman 52 is old enough to make this decision without help. And whether or not he's something to write home about is for her to decide — not you. The marriage may be a very good one, so why don't you keep your nose out of it?

Heels Of Home

Dear Ann: Our 16 - year - old daughter is running us crazy. We want her to have friends and bring them to the house but there's a limit to everything.

Four nights last week she had between 20 and 25 kids here. They stayed until 2 a.m. The next morning the house looked like a tornado had hit. Cigarette butts everywhere, wet glasses on tables, pillows on the floor and pictures askew.

(How do they climb the walls anyway?)

They cleaned the refrigerator and there wasn't a piece of bread for breakfast this morning.

When I ask why they always come here she says: "You should be glad you know where your daughter is nights."

My husband says I'm too hard on her but then he doesn't have to clean up after these mobs. How about it?—OLD GRAY MARE.

—:—

Dear Gray: It is nice that the kids come to your house, but you are a fool to serve as a janitor for this girl's teen - age friends.

Tell her all the gals should pitch in and supply refreshments and everyone must join forces and leave the house as they found it — or they can rent a hall.

Ann Landers will be glad to help you with your problems. Send them to her in care of The Review, enclosing a stamped, self-addressed envelope.

Ace Collector Of Autographs Addresses City Rotary Club

Famous people who dreamed up "gimmicks" to help them achieve their life goals were the subjects of a talk on "What's Your Gimmick?" by Edwin A. Rowlands of Coraopolis when the Rotary Club met Tuesday noon in the Travelers Hotel.

Rowlands, a salesman for a Salem printing firm, is known as the "world's foremost autograph collector and hobby expert" and has appeared on television shows.

He personally met and obtained autographs of 4,987 of the world's most famous personalities.

Rowlands' collection includes signatures of 4 presidents, 25 movie stars, notable sports figures and others.

Rowlands claimed that "gimmicks" have figured prominently in the rise to fame of many persons, among them President Dwight Eisenhower, Albert Einstein and Grandma Moses, New England's famous artist.

Eisenhower's statement just before election that he would travel to Korea and negotiate for peace put him into the White House, the speaker contended.

Rowlands said that Einstein was an unknown clerical worker in a Switzerland patent office before his theory of relativity. At the University of Princeton, he gained new prominence in the field of nuclear physics before his death.

"Grandma Moses uses her age—99—to remain one of America's most famous painters," Rowlands pointed out. Rowlands said that she was 82 when she sold her first painting and in 1949 she had earned $87,000.

A Kansas school superintendent who devised and sold plaster plaques of school insignias at a tremendous profit, a Pennsylvania woman who designed drapes painted with the insignias and names of American and National League baseball teams, and a Georgia football coach who designed a "tear-away" jersey were among people mentioned by Rowlands who used "gimmicks" to become famous or rich.

Rowlands said his collection of autographs includes those of Helen Keller, Eisenhower, Harry S. Truman, Franklin D. Roosevelt and Herbert Hoover, in addition to Dr. Werner Von Braun, Richard Nixon, Sen. John Kennedy, and Clark Gable.

The most interesting part of obtaining the autographs was the "scheming" required to arrange a meeting, Rowlands said.

He was introduced by William D. Christopher, program chairman. Charles Taylor, president, presided.

Scout Movie Screened For Chester Cub Pack

Eugene Seeley screened a Boy Scout movie at a meeting of Cub Pack 30 Monday night at the Chester Methodist Church Memorial Center.

Pennants to be awarded monthly for achievement and for parent attendance were displayed. Mrs. Clifton Huff led closing prayer.

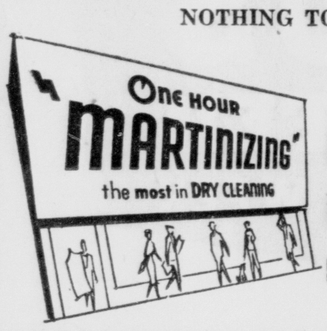

Donald Theiss, cubmaster, presided. The next meeting will be Oct. 26.

Los Angeles Nips Braves, 6-5; Takes National League Flag

Mantilla's Wild Throw Is Costly

LOS ANGELES (AP) — The champion Los Angeles Dodgers moved into Chicago today, ready to take on the White Sox for the world championship.

The Milwaukee Braves, shorn of their National League pennant, headed for their homes.

But the scene in Memorial Coliseum Tuesday as dusk settled was still a vivid memory to the 36,528 fans gathered in the place, and the thousands who watched on television.

Two of the great heroes of the Dodger old guard, first baseman Gil Hodges and outfielder Carl Furillo, were all but dismantled by their teammates as the battle came to its quick end in the 12th inning.

Hodges scored the winning run in the 6 to 5 victory on Furillo's hit back of second base, a tally made possible when Felix Mantilla threw wild to first base.

The entire Dodger team suddenly became one rolling, tangled mass of happy ballplayers.

Silently, in typical Indian single file procession, the Braves walked out of their dugout, down the long tunnel and into their dressing quarters.

They said not a word during the march, and very little as they showered, dressed and took off.

There was no champagne celebration in the Dodgers quarters. For one thing, liquor is barred from the city-owned Coliseum. For another, the team had less than three hours to take off for Chicago.

But there was a joyous interlude. Hodges poured a soft drink over the head of the winning pitcher, young Stan Williams. Then he got on the rubbing table to have his chronically sore leg massaged.

Manager Walt Alston, a soft-spoken, kindly sort of man, was speechless for moments but finally said: "At the moment, I can't think of much to say."

Presently Alston excused himself. He showed up, still in uniform and spiked shoes, in the Brave dressing room to shake hands with Brave manager Fred Haney.

"You came from behind to win and you deserved it," sportsman Haney declared. "Now go after the White Sox."

The Dodgers were down 5-2 in the ninth when they chased starter Lew Burdette with consecutive singles by Wally Moon, Duke Snider and Hodges. Reliever Don McMahon yielded a two-run single to Norm Larker, and Furillo tied it with his long fly off Warren Spahn.

The Braves scored in the first on Frank Torre's two-run single and added a third run in the second Snider's throwing error. They knocked out starter Don Drysdale in the fifth when Ed Mathews hit his 46th home run.

Their fifth and final run came in the eighth when Del Crandall tripled and scored on Mantilla's sacrifice fly.

The Dodgers scored a run in the first when Moon singled in Charley Neal, who had tripled. Neal slammed his 19th home run of the season over the left field screen in the fourth for the second Dodger run.

Alston's Hometown Celebrates Victory

DARRTOWN, Ohio (AP)—This is a quiet country town, population 200, but the calm was shattered suddenly Tuesday night.

There were explosions, guns were fired, auto horns blew and the whole town knew favorite son Walt Alston and his Los Angeles Dodgers had won the National League playoff for the pennant.

And at Alston's home, the manager's wife and friends had been quietly watching the television version of the Dodgers' 6-5 overtime defeat of Milwaukee.

"As soon as the game was over," Mrs. Alston said, "I guess everyone knew Darrtown was on the map."

Con Savini, Columbia halfback, batted .448 for the Lion baseball team last season. He won the Penn game with a home run.

Dodgers, White Sox Open Series Thursday

Wynn, Craig To Hurl First Game

CHICAGO (AP) — The Los Angeles Dodgers and the Chicago White Sox, two clubs who have to scrap for what they get, finally open what might be the richest World Series in history here Thursday at Comiskey Park.

Manager Walt Alston, his Dodgers riding high after beating Milwaukee in the National League pennant playoff, said his first game pitcher will be Roger Craig (11-5), an almost forgotten right-hander who became a ace in the drive for the flag.

White Sox Manager Al Lopez is expected to name Early Wynn, at 39 the Old Man right-hander who topped the majors with 22 victories and was the American League's only 20-game winner.

The oddsmakers favor the White Sox, playing in a World Series for the first time in 40 years, at 11-10 for both the series and the first game.

The first two games will be League season. That layoff, howplayed in Comiskey Park with the best-of-seven championship then shifting to the Coliseum in Los Angeles for the third, fourth and, if necessary, fifth games. If needed, the sixth and seventh games will be played in Chicago, with a day of travel interrupting play when the clubs shift parks.

It's the massive Coliseum, seating some 94,000 for baseball, which could make this the richest series. Comiskey Park seats 46,550.

All games will start at 1 p.m. local time and will be telecast and broadcast nationally by NBC.

The bookmakers have made the White Sox favorites because of their three days of rest since Sunday's close of the American ever, may have cooled off the Sox, while the Dodgers could still be riding the kick of having won eight of their last 10 games.

The Dodgers, first club ever to win an NL pennant after finishing seventh the year before, jumped into Comiskey Park for a workout today. They boarded a flight from Los Angeles a few hours after eliminating the defending champion Braves two straight in the best of three playoff with Tuesday's 6-5, 12-inning victory.

Lopez, meanwhile, sent his White Sox through an intra-squad game Tuesday, hoping to keep 'em sharp.

The one-day delay in the series opener caused by the NL playoff probably did the Sox' walking injured — outfielder Jim Landis (injured leg) and catcher Sherm Lollar (bruised hand) — some good. But it may not prove a benefit for Wynn. The Old Man, top winner among major league pitchers still at it (271), has worked best with three days rest. He'll have four days of rest for the opening assignment.

While the Dodgers number quite a few holdovers from previous series squads, the White Sox have but four — first baseman Earl Torgeson, with the 1948 Braves; outfielder Al Smith and Wynn, with the 1954 Cleveland Indians; and Lollar, with the 1947 New York Yankees.

Only Lollar was with a winner, and it was the Dodgers whom the Yankees beat, in seven games.

Lopez, incidentally, managed the Indians of '54 — and lost the series in four straight games to the Giants.

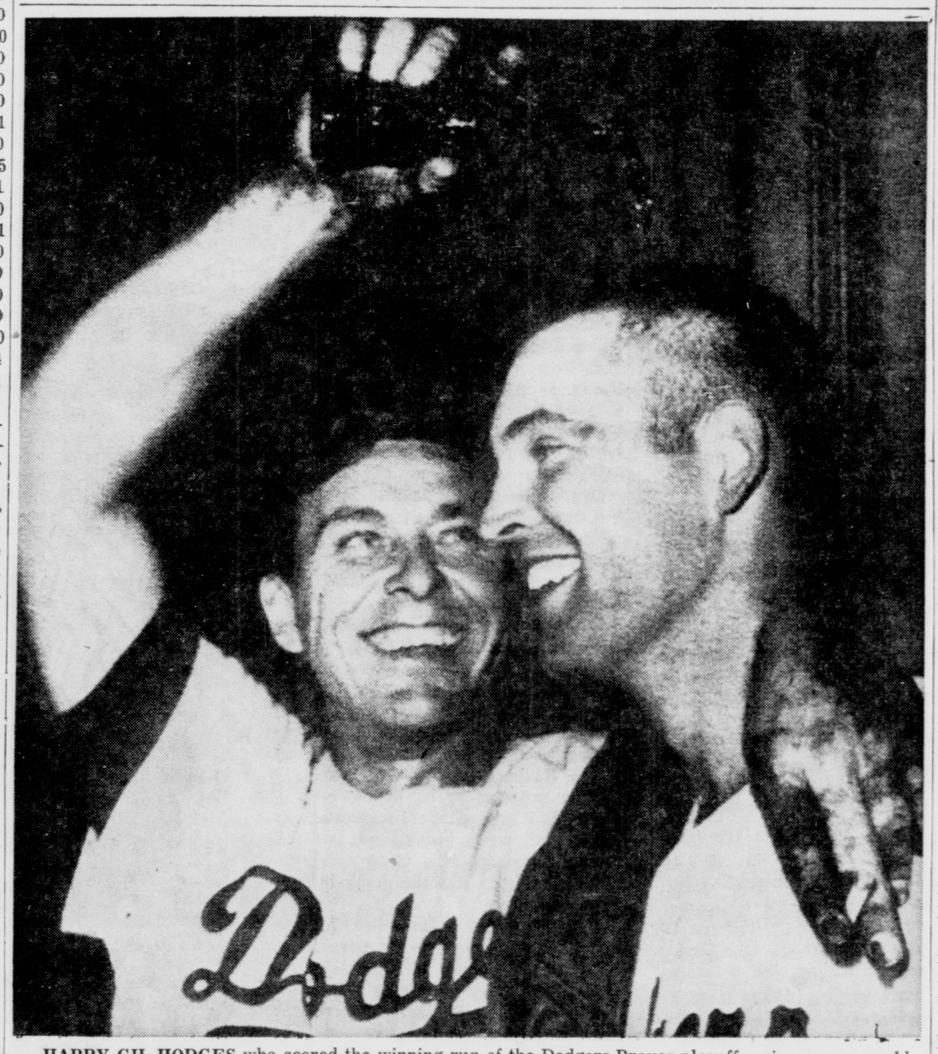

This is the fifth White Sox team to win a pennant, but only the fourth to play in a World Series. The 1901 club won the first AL race, but the World Series wasn't born until 1903. The Hitless Wonders of 1906 won the series from Chicago's Cubs and the 1917 team beat the New York Giants.

Then came the infamous Black Sox and the rigged 1919 series with Cincinnati.

The Sox, with 35 of their 94 victories by one run, put away their first pennant since then with a 4-2 victory, behind Wynn, over Cleveland a week ago Tuesday. Like the Dodgers, the White Sox gathered in the pennant by beating the only club that could take it from them.

They were 15-7 against second-place Cleveland for the season, virtually locking up the flag with a four-game sweep late in August.

The Dodgers, winning a pennant with the fewest victories (88) in National League history, put away their ninth title — their first as a West Coast club — after being tied with Milwaukee for second, two games behind San Francisco, on the next to last Friday of the season.

Williams Wins Big One

CHICAGO (AP) — Stan Williams, a fellow who throws hard but hardly ever straight, is satisfied today that he paid his way to Chicago.

Reduced to the role of an extra by his agonizing lack of control, Williams had been in futile pursuit of victory since July.

Tuesday he caught it, and it was a monumental catch — one that helped the Los Angeles Dodgers seize the National League title.

"I knew I owed the club this win and I wanted to go out there and get it," the blond giant said after the Dodgers' 12-inning 6-5 victory over Milwaukee.

"This was the very biggest thrill of my life," Williams said. "The realization hasn't hit me yet, but this has to be the biggest."

Williams had a 4-5 record before his three innings of shutout relief Tuesday. He hadn't won since July, had rarely been used. He had 86 strikeouts in 121 2-3 innings, but he also had 83 walks — and a less-than-lustrous earned run average of 4.06.

He stopped the Braves with his one really good pitch, a whistling fast ball.

"I had a very bad curve in the bullpen," he said, "and I threw only one curve after I got in. That was a ball. All the rest were fast balls."

Ohio State Takes Off For West Coast Game

COLUMBUS, Ohio (AP) — Ohio State's football team leaves this afternoon for Los Angeles and the first night game in its history.

The 38-man traveling squad for Friday's game with Southern California is scheduled for a short scrimmage before takeoff time.

Tuesday, quarterback Jerry Fields returned to action following a chest injury last Saturday.

Coach Woody Hayes was not too satisfied with Tuesday's drill. He said the team's blocking form on punt protection was not good last week.

The first sons and daughters of Nashua are scheduled to go to the post as 2-year-olds next winter at Hialeah.

LSU Rates Edge On Baylor

Iowa, Purdue Are Picked In Big Contests Saturday

By HAROLD CLAASSEN
Associated Press Sports Writer

NEW YORK (AP)—Every year the college football fathers change the rules of the game but they never make it easier to pick the winners. Here's another swing around the circuit:

Louisiana State over Baylor: You gotta pick LSU because it has Billy Cannon. Baylor's best bet is Ronnie Bull, sophomore quarterback. But it could be very close.

Iowa over Northwestern: Each met a name foe last week and each romped to an easy victory. The Hawkeyes keep their momentum in a rugged fray.

Mississippi over Memphis State: Who's that again? Memphis State?

Army over Illinois: Lonely end Bill Carpenter and backs Joe Caldwell and Bob Anderson give the Cadets the edge.

Clemson over Georgia Tech: The Carolina Tigers get revenge for that 13-0 setback of a year ago.

Purdue over Notre Dame: There are 24 returning lettermen on the Big Ten squad.

Tennessee over Mississippi State: Having stopped Auburn's winning streak, the Vols are determined to go all the way.

Texas over California: You can see this one for yourself on TV. That Texas line makes things easy for the Longhorn backs.

Ohio State over Southern California: Bob White, the Buckeye fullback, makes this venture as safe as money in the bank.

Wisconsin over Marquette: The Badgers in a breeze.

South Carolina over Georgia: The Carolina defense stops Charley Britt & Co., but not by the margin of 10 points as a year ago.

Navy over Southern Methodist: Joe Tranchini outpasses Don Meredith.

Syracuse over Maryland: Supposedly Syracuse was so good it didn't need a quarterback but coach Ben Schwartzwalder unfurled Dave Serette, a sophomore in last week's triumph over Nebraska.

Penn State over Colgate: Richie Lucas is as good as they come at quarterback.

Furillo Changes Mind On Retiring From Game

CHICAGO (AP) — There was a time this season when Carl Furillo, feeling old, weary, worried and unwanted, was talking about quitting baseball.

Today, the oldest Dodger of them all, in point of service as well as in age, is not only talking excitedly about playing in another World Series, but returning for next year, the year after and the year after that.

That's what one little hit can do for a guy, even if he is going on 38 with 14 big league campaigns under his belt.

Furillo's latest hit was 1,907 of his career. It was one of his shortest but probably the most important. It came with two out and two on base in the bottom of the 12th inning and led to the decisive run in the Dodgers' 6-5 pennant-clinching triumph over Milwaukee in Los Angeles Tuesday.

With Gil Hodges on second and Joe Pignatano on first, Furillo bounced a 1-2 pitch over pitcher Bob Rush's head. Shortstop Felix Mantilla came over behind second to field the ball but his throw to first base was low.

It bounced past Frank Torre, hit Dodger Coach Greg Mulleavy and bounced away. Hodges, who had stopped, after rounding third, picked up steam and galloped across the plate with the game and pennant-winning run.

The official scorer ruled it a hit for Furillo and an error for Mantilla.

Mary Jane Clark Wins Feature At Lebanon

LEBANON, Ohio (AP)—Marion Stephens, veteran driver, rallied Mary Jane Clark to win the featured trot at Lebanon Raceway Tuesday night—by a nose.

The winner's 2:05 3-5 circuit was the best mile ever for the 11-year-old mare. Mary Jane Clark fought off challenges in the stretch by second - finisher Pro Mack and third-place Proterra. She paid $10.40.

Lucky Star and Mr. Jerry produced a daily double of $19.80.

Braddock Can Tie National Grid Mark Friday At Midland

Tigers Seek 48th Straight Grid Victory

There will be a lot riding on the Midland-Braddock game Friday at the Lincoln High School Stadium.

First of all there is a 47-game winning streak at stake for the perennially strong Braddock Tigers. A victory over Midland Friday would tie a scholastic football record set by Abiline, Tex., a few years ago.

Braddock has not been defeated since 1953 — by North Braddock Scott — and since then has 47 victories against one tie.

A victory by Braddock also would knock Midland from the Class "A" WPIAL race.

Midland, with a 3-0 record, has squeezed by three opponents, winning by one touchdown margins. The Leopards own victories over Beaver Falls, Pittsburgh Taylor and Beaver.

Braddock, last year's "A" champ, just nipped Midland, 9-7, in 1958.

The Midland-Braddock encounter is one of two top games in the district. Wellsville will visit Chester in another headliner Friday.

Coach Ken Woods' Tigers haven't shown too much so far, earning an 8-8 tie with Leetonia, but falling before Toronto last week, 28-0.

Chester has won four in a row, but has not faced any real stiff competition.

In other games, East Liverpool will visit New Philadelphia and Newell will go to Wayne. The Vikings of Coach Pete Horoszko haven't scored in three games.

South Side (0-3) will visit Ellsworth and the powerful Salem Quakers, 16th in the state ratings, will entertain Canton Timken.

Cameron will move into New Cumberland, while two other games are Tri-County affairs. East Palestine will shoot for its 13th straight at Leetonia and Columbiana will be at Minerva.

Saturday's schedule shows five games on tap. Beaver Local and Salineville, two county rivals, will meet at Salineville; United will be at Greenford; the Steubenville Reserves will visit Irondale in a night contest; Lisbon will play at Poland, and North Lima will move into Fairfield-Waterford.

Two Beaver Local varsity gridders have been lost for the season due to weekend mishaps. Ron Westover, a junior tackle, accidentally shot himself in the foot Sunday and John Smith suffered two broken bones in his wrist in the game against Stanton Local of Irondale Saturday, Coach Jack O'Rourke said. Smith is a senior halfback.

THE LOS ANGELES Dodgers pounced on Carl Furillo and Gil Hodges as the winning run was scored in the 12th inning to give them the National League pennant. The team set two new records, winning the pennant with the least number of winning games for the season and coming from 7th place in 1958 to first place in 1949. (UPI Telephoto)

Foltz Injures Leg, May Miss Friday's Game

Cocah Art Lewis of West Virginia said today that left tackle Larry Foltz, the former Newell gridder, may miss the game with George Washington Friday night in the nation's capital.

Foltz, who started the Richmond game last week, came up with a leg injury.

George Washington is making no secret of its battle plan for West Virginia.

When the Southern Conference football rivals meet at Griffith Stadium this Friday night, the Colonials intend to pass that ball.

"If we find the openings, we'll run," Coach Bo Sherman said today.

But GW's first aim is to move by air, with quarterback Ed Hino at the controls.

Hino's passing and end Bill Smythe's receiving were decisive in GW's 18-14 victory over Boston University last Friday. The 170-pound senior quarterback was named player of the week by conference area sports writers of his performance at Boston.

After two games, Hino is No. 5 passer in the nation on the basis of completions. He was connected on 21 of 49 throws for 270 yards and a .429 average.

Hino may have to work longer than usual when West Virginia brings its record of 29 straight Southern Conference triumps to town.

Sherman likes to shuffle full 11-man units in and out of a game, but alternate quarterback Chuck Packan was one of three Colonials injured at Boston. If Packan is benched by his sore knee, only unseasoned quarterbacks would be available to spell Hino.

Sherman has been drilling halfback Jerry Power and soph Bill Hardy as possible replacements. Besides Packan, fullback Duane Whetstone hurt a knee against Boston and end Nick Anzelmi bruised a leg.

Meanwhile at Morgantown, W. Va., the Mountaineers started tapering off today in drills for the encounter. They are scheduled to fly from here to Washington tomorrow.

Coach Art Lewis has let up this week on the head-knocking type of scrimmage sessions in order to polish up offensive play patterns and rig up a pass defense.

The team will be at near full strength with both quarterback Danny Williams and fullback Tom Huston expected to be available. These two missed the Richmond game last week because of injuries. Based on drills so far this week, this looks like the probable starting lineup:

Ben McComb and Dave Hess at ends, Carl Dannenberg and Glenn Bowman at tackles, Bill Lopasky and Pete Tolley at guards, Joe Wirth at center, Williams or Carmen Pomponio at quarterback, Ray Peterson and Johnny Marra or Dick Herrig at halfbacks with Huston at fullback.

Lopez Receives 1-Year Contract For $50,000

CHICAGO (AP) — The Chicago White Sox, eyeing what will be the biggest World Series melon in history, are ready to take on the Los Angeles Dodgers.

Armed with a new contract calling for the highest salary ever paid a White Sox player or manager, Al Lopez feels his team has a great chance for the title.

Lopez called Los Angeles "a pretty good ball club with a few guys who can run." He wouldn't say if he thought the Dodgers were faster than his "go go" Sox but said "their catcher (John Roseboro) can run. I saw him steal a base against the Cubs."

Lopez signed a one-year contract calling for an estimated $50,000. The highest paid Sox player is believed to be Nellie Fox who supposedly is receiving around $40,000.

When White Sox president Bill Veeck unveiled a replica of Lopez' contract — a giant-sized board with the terms printed clearly — he was sprayed with questions as to why it was for one year.

Veeck said Lopez could have any tenure he wanted but insisted on only one year.

"They might get tired of me after a year," laughed Lopez.

Veeck tried to rehire Lopez last Aug. 20, Lopez's 51st birthday, but the former catcher said he wanted to wait for the end of the season. Under Lopez, the White Sox finished second in 1957 and 1958.

Lopez is the only manager who has cracked Casey Stengel's monopoly of Yankee pennants. Lopez won with Cleveland in 1954 but lost four straight in the World Series to the New York Giants.

The Beaver Local Reserves came from behind in the second half to defeat the Fairfield-Waterford Jayvees, 14-6 Monday at Beaver Local.

Francis Possage turned in a 20-yard touchdown gallop in the third quarter then added the two extra points to put the Beavers in front, 8-6.

Fred Woodburn added the Beavers' second touchdown on a 35-yard sprint in the fourth period.

Beaver Local is now 1-1 for the season after losing last week to Steubenville Central.

Non-U.S. Fighters Rank Higher In Ring Ratings

NEW YORK (AP) — The continuing decline of United States boxers and the rise of the pros in other lands is strikingly noted in the latest ratings of Ring magazine.

Of the 88 champions and contenders ranked in the eight divisions, 48 positions, or 55 per cent, are occupied by non-U.S. fighters.

In the latest monthly ratings, released today, fighters from outside the U.S. held 4 berths in the heavyweight division, headed by World Champion Ingemar Johansson of Sweden; 6 in the light heavyweight class; 2 in the middleweight division; 4 in the welterweight division; 3 in the lightweight division; 7 in the featherweight group, and all 11 in both the bantamweight and flyweight classes.

The other non-U.S. world champions are bantamweight Joe Becerra of Mexico and flyweight Pascual Perez of Argentina.

Finland has a ranking fighter for the first time since heavyweight Gunnar Barlund was up with the elite in the late thirties and early forties. The rated Finn is flyweight Risto Luukkonen, No. 9 among the 112-pounders.

Tony Anthony of New York was named "Fighter of the Month" for his decision over heavyweight Alonzo Johnson of Pittsburgh. Anthony, longtime light heavyweight contender, was shifted from the 175-pound class to eighth contender in the heavyweight division.

Army Eleven Leads Nation

By The Associated Press

Army's unique lonely end offense proved such a potent passing formation last season that the cadets, long known as a running team, won the major college football passing championship. They started the 1959 season in the same style.

The first major college team statistics of the season, released today by the National Collegiate A.A. Service Bureau, list Army as No. 1 in passing and total offense.

That's on the basis of an opening game performance against Boston College in which Army completed 24 of 34 passes for 314 yards and ran for 249 yards more to make a total of 563. Syracuse in second place has a 492-yard total for one game. Southern Methodist, the No. 2 passing team at this stage, gained 241 air yards in its first game.

Army also is the top team in rushing defense, having stopped B.C. runners with minus 12 yards net.

Northwestern picked on Oklahoma to become the one-game scoring leader with 45 points.

North Texas State, which has played two games, heads the rushing offense tabulation with an average of 366.5 yards per game. Syracuse leads in total defense, having yielded only 67 yards total to Kansas. Penn's forward pass Allowance of 16 yards is best for one game. Kansas has averaged 48.4 yards on 14 punts in two games.

Nonpareil Club Plans 'Work Party' At Field

Blue and White Nonpareil Club members, who will be available, are asked to report to Patterson Field Thursday morning at 8:30 to help paint the fence around the field. Red Nontgomery is chairman of the committee.

Things Looking Up This Year For Georgia Tech Followers

By JACK CLARY
Associated Press Sports Writer

Georgia Tech and a rugged bunch of senior football players are making overtures at joining the elite of college football these days. That is the class Tech usually frequents but for the past two years it has been among the also-rans.

Things look different this year for the Yellowjackets, ranked No. 7 in this week's Associated Press poll. They have won their first two games, not overwhelmingly but have shown themselves to be of more than average stature.

Tech has called upon one of Coach Bobby Dodd's trademarks —defense—as a big part of both victories (14-12 over Kentucky and a 16-14 upset of Southern Methodist) and have found a quarterback who makes a little go a long way.

The quarterback is Fred Brasleton, a senior from Corpus Christi, Tex., who has been the big offensive spark. Against SMU last weekend he hooked up in a passing duel with Don Meredith, reputed to be the nation's best. Most important, his team won the ball game. He came out second in final statistics.

This weekend, the Yellowjackets face Clemson, also undefeated in two games and the top choice to take the Atlantic Coast Conference title.

Dartmouth expects quarterback Bill Gundy to play in its Ivy League opener against Penn on Saturday. He missed the Indians first game against Holy Cross.

Bob Deegan took over Minnesota's No. 1 right end post after coming off the injury list. Bob Haas, reserve quarterback who engineered Missouri's last minute winning TD against Michigan last Saturday, is expected to start against Iowa State this weekend.

Junior World Series Will Shift To Havana

MINNEAPOLIS (AP) — The Minneapolis Millers and Havana Sugar Kings, cold-shouldered by the weather and fans in the wintry northland, flee today for Havana sunshine and pesos.

They resume the Junior World Series Thursday night in the Cuban capital after top minor league brass decided two games were enough in the cold, wind and rain of Minneapolis. The teams are tied 1-1.

Wednesday night's scheduled windup game of the Minneapolis section of the series was shifted to Havana, where crowds up to 20,000 a game have been forecast.

The teams drew only 3,548 in two games here.

Gets Loan League Post

COLUMBUS, Ohio (AP)—Joseph E. Linville of Columbus has been appointed executive secretary of the Ohio Savings & Loan League. Linville succeeds retiring Don L. Tobin. Linville has been with the organization since 1945.

Seaway Boosts Cargo

CLEVELAND (AP) — The St. Lawrence Seaway has provided a big boost to foreign cargo tonnage moving through the Port of Cleveland. In four months, the tonnage has surpassed all of 1958. James R. Rowland, Cleveland harbor commissioner, reports that 339 ships carried 79,946 tons of general cargo imports and exports during the seaway's four-month period of operations including August. It compares with 446 ships carrying 68,007 tons in the entire 1958 season.

LITTEN'S

By R. L. LIDE

Sometimes it looks like the fishermen who have not will have to show the fishermen who have how to catch fish.

Pennsylvania anglers have been taking home bass up to 4 pounds, 6 ounces at Lake Guilford within the past week.

The "have nots" refer to residents of Pennsylvania living just across the Ohio border line. They tell me they have no place to fish within easy driving distance, therefore, they are content to fish at Lake Guilford and really appreciate the lake because they catch bass there.

—:—

MOST OF our local anglers appear to have finished with their fishing and stowed their fishing equipment among the moth balls for the season.

Actually, you can enjoy better fishing now than was possible during the hot weather of July and August. Night crawlers seem to be the best bait to use at Guilford at present, according to the reports I have from the Pennsylvania fishermen.

Bullhead catfish are biting at Guilford. Many people prefer bullheads for table use because they are less bony than scale fish and good eating, also easier to catch.

—:—

RECENTLY, 12,200 channel cat catfish fingerlings were received from the U.S. Fish and Wildlife Service and stocked in Guilford.

Catching channel cats at Guilford is more of an exception than the rule. Very few are taken by the anglers and one has shown up occasionally in the test nets.

The record channel cat taken by John Galechick of Salem, at Lake Guilford, 36 inches long and 32 pounds, has been recognized by the "King of Fishermen" contest, sponsored by the Cleveland Press and certified by the Outdoor Writers of Ohio.

—:—

I WOULD not be surprised if some one did not come up with a record largemouth bass, since there are some lunkers in Lake Guilford. Trouble is the fishermen taking large bass do not always report the catch. They are content to take it home and let it go at that.

Just what happened to the muskellunge fry that was stocked in Guilford two years ago is not known. Rumor has it that one about 12 inches long was picked up on the shore line dead. Someone was supposed to have caught one about a foot long, but there has been no proof that this happened.

There are little grass pike in the lake that are taken occasionally which some angler might mistake for a musky. If the muskies did any good, they should begin to show up by this time.

Chicago Rates 2½-Point Edge Over Browns

CLEVELAND (AP) — Coach Paul Brown says Rich Kreitling will be working as a flanker this afternoon when the Cleveland Browns start preparing for their game Sunday in Chicago against the Cardinals.

"We like what we've seen of Kreitling and he is figuring stronger and stronger in our planning," the coach said Tuesday night. "We are satisfied that Preston Carpenter can carry the load as the slot end. So, we're moving Rich to the flanker. We can make better use of his speed out there."

Brown said Mike McCormack, who has seen little action since he suffered a knee injury at the Hiram training camp, will open at offensive tackle in Chicago.

Warren Lahr, who sat out last week's loss to Pittsburgh because of injuries, is expected to be able to man a safety spot again.

The Cardinals, who walloped the Washington Redskins in their opener Sunday, have been established as 2½-point favorite over the Browns. They have beaten the Browns only twice in 18 meetings and it is their first time in the favorite's role.

Brown said he was not planning wholesale changes after the loss to Pittsburgh.

"Actually the Stealers and our team were pretty well matched," he said. "I'd say the main difference was attitude or desire, or whatever you want to call it.

"They came through with the extra effort. We tried our best but just didn't have that head of steam up. The Steelers also made a couple of great plays.

"In the main they were the difference."

Paratroopers Chalk Up Army Marching Record

FT. CAMPBELL, Ky. (AP) — Paratroopers marched down the road, talking of beer and women.

They were in the process of setting an unofficial Army record of marching 93.6 miles in 37 hours. Their march was to test the foot mobility of the 101st Airborne Division.

Motorists passed by, looked, and asked questions.

"When we told them what we were doing, they thought we were crazy," said Pfc. Steve Koretz Jr. 18, New York.

But nobody offered them a ride until the final 10 miles when three girls in a convertible offered a lift.

"Boy, did that take will power to turn down," said Lt. Frederick Borneman of Downey, Calif. "Those last 10 miles were the hardest."

Only Four White Sox Players Show Experience In World Series Games

By FRANK ECK
AP Newsfeatures Sports Editor

The Chicago White Sox are long on speed but short on World Series experience.

Of their 25 eligible players for the World Series opening Wednesday (Sept. 30) in Comiskey Park, Chicago, only four have seen action in baseball's annual classic.

And since the White Sox last won an American League pennant in 1919, the four men with series experience naturally made the goal of most major leaguers with other clubs.

And only Sherman Lollar, the White Sox dependable catcher, knows what it is to play on a World Series winner.

Lollar got his chance in the 1947 series mainly because Yogi Berra of the Yankees had a lot to learn about catching and throwing. In the first two games that year, the Dodgers stole three bases in as many attempts with Yogi catching. He also made a bad throw. Manager Bucky Harris put Berra in right field the third game and Lollar got his chance to catch. Lollar, a rookie that year, had played only 11 regular season games. But in his two series games Lollar, now 35, made three hits in four efforts.

Left Fielder Al Smith, 31, is the only other Sox regular to make a previous series. He played for Manager Al Lopez in 1954 when Cleveland led the American League with 111 victories. But in the four series games swept by the New York Giants, Smitty batted only .214. He did hit one home run. It came off Johnny Antonelli's first pitch in the second game and sailed over the left roof in the Polo Grounds.

Early Wynn, Chicago's ace, led Cleveland to the '54 flag with 23 victories but in the series he lost his only start, 3-1, while allowing only four hits in seven innings. He lost to Antonelli. It was the game in which Smith hit his home run.

Earl Torgeson made the 1948 series with the Boston Braves, played a flawless five games at first base and led his team in hitting. He made seven hits, three of them doubles, in 18 efforts for a .389 mark. Torgy sat out the third game in favor of veteran Frank McCormick against southpaw Gene Bearden.

Torgeson probably will see series action as a southpaw pinch hitter but more likely as a base runner for the 240-pound Ted Kluszewski in late innings. Big Klu, obtained from Pittsburgh just in time to become a series eligible, has looked just great at bat and in the field in his one month in the American League.

Manager Al Lopez and three of his coaches have been to a World Series before. The senor handled the Indians when the Giants, thanks to Dusty Rhodes' pinch hitting, won the '54 series in four straight.

It was a series that made Lopez more popular than ever because he never alibied over that shocking setback in which the Giants seemed to be hitting 257-foot home runs while Willie Mays was making 450-foot catches in center field with his back to home plate.

Third base coach Tony Cuccinello, who never played in a series, coached for Lopez in the '54 setback. First base coach Don Gutteridge played second base with the St. Louis Browns in the 1944 series, lost to the Cardinals, and got in three games with the Boston Red Sox in the '46 series, also lost to Cardinals.

Coach Johnny Cooney, a keen bench observer for Lopez, coached under Billy Southworth when the Boston Braves won the 1948 pennant.

Chicago bullpen coach Ray Berres, a former catcher, has been playing, managing or coaching 31 years but this is his first World Series.

British Champion Faces Giardello In Televised Bout

CHICAGO (AP) — Dick Tiger, British Empire middleweight champion, will match his swift left hooks against Joey Giardello's right-hand bombs tonight.

Giardello, veteran of 100 bouts, is a 6-5 favorite in the televised (ABC, 10 p.m. EDT) 10 rounder, to be scored under the 5-point-must system.

Giardello, ex-Philadelphian now living in Rosedale, N. Y., is seeking his fourth straight victory after taking decisions from Chico Vejar and Holly Mims and scoring a first round knockout over Del Flanagan. In 11 years of pro campaigning, he has won 78 bouts, 27 by kayoes.

Tiger, 30-year-old Nigerian who lives in Liverpool, England, will be making his second TV appearance. The last time, as a lopsided underdog, he knocked Ace Armstrong from the unbeaten ranks in Camden, N. J., Sept. 2. Tiger has won 34 of 44 bouts, 10 by knockouts.

Pitt Must Improve Its Passing Game

PITTSBURGH (AP) — The only way the University of Pittsburgh football team will beat UCLA Saturday is with an improved air game, says Pitt Coach Johnny Michelosen.

The coach made the statement Tuesday as the Panthers spent the afternoon going through passing drills and rugged blocking and tackling sessions.

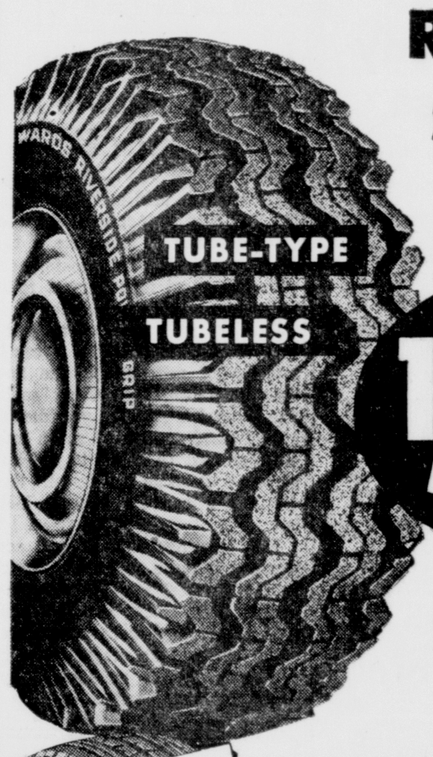

Michelosen showed some hope though, saying that he expected his ace quarterback Ivan Toncic to be in the best physical shape he has been in all season. Toncic has been bothered by an injured knee since the season started.

To Inherit Fortune

CINCINNATI (AP) — The children and grandchildren of Mrs. Olivia Benedict of Cincinnati stand to inherit under her will most of her $6,101,519 estate. That's the report Tuesday in Probate Court where an estimate of the estate's value was filed. Mrs. Benedict, granddaughter of a founder of Procter & Gamble Co., was 91 when she died last July 15.

Blast Climaxed Quarrel

Soldier, Girl Friend Hurt By Homemade Bomb

COLUMBUS, Ohio (AP) — A homemade pop - bottle bomb, fashioned by a 17-year-old soldier, exploded Tuesday and critically injured the youth and his 16-year-old girl friend. The blast apparently climaxed a quarrel.

Investigators said it looked like planned homicide - suicide. The youth said it was an accident.

Hospitalized here are James Henson and Joyce Streets, both of Columbus. Henson suffered severe body injuries and lost his left hand. The girl's left arm was shattered and her face and body were hurt.

Sheriff's officers said the blast followed a "lover's spat" during which Henson told the girl "if things don't work out I'm going to blow us both up."

According to Sheriff's Sgt. Clyde Mann, Henson had picked up the Streets girl at her school and driven her to his home where they visited a while. Henson said he asked the girl to go out with him but she refused.

Earl Allison, Franklin County prosecutor, quoted the girl as saying she left the house and went out to the boy's car to get her school books. She said Henson followed her and apparently brought the bomb with him. It went off outside the car as Miss Streets reached inside.

The bomb was fashioned from a soda pop bottle, powder from about fifty .30 caliberrifle cartridges and an Army fuse lighter.

Deputies who searched Henson's car found lengths of string and parts of fuse lighters tied to both rear doors, indicating the youth earlier had booby-trapped his car.

While Henson said the contraption in his hand went off accidentally, investigators said it would have taken "some strength" to pull a cotter pin that ignited the fuse.

Henson was home on a one-week leave from Ft. Knox, Ky., pending transfer to Ft. Bragg, N. C, authorities said.

Iron Age Claims T-H Inevitable If Conference Fails

NEW YORK (AP)—The magazine Iron Age said today invoking the Taft-Hartley Act to break the steel deadlock is inevitable if today's presidential conference with labor and management fails to bring about an agreement.

Positions on both sides were irreconcilable after last week's breakup of negotiations, the national metalworking weekly said. The magazine saw the president's appeal for a settlement as an implication that he hoped to use his personal prestige to break the deadlock without invoking the T-H law.

But, Iron Age said, federal action now is more or less academic as far as steel supplies are concerned. Steel stocks are less than half what they were when the strike started, the magazine said, and even this is unbalanced by type, size and location.

Bringing Up A Family

By GARRY MEYERS

Avoid Roughhouse With Quiet Games

Our 13 grandchildren now range in ages from the first grade to senior year in college. Though each of the three families lives many hundred miles from our home, some or many of the grandchildren have spent many summer weeks with Mrs. Myers and me, sometimes with, sometimes without, their parents, from the time the youngest was a tiny baby. So each summer I have had a refresher course in observing children pretty closely. As roughhouse was always taboo, these youngsters spent many hours at quiet fun indoors. We had ample toys, the most widely used being a big assortment of blocks. Books and children's magazines were, of course, a frequent medium of enjoyment.

By Garry Meyers

ANOTHER CONSTANT source of amusement was the playing of card games by two or several children at a time. Flinch was always a favorite from the age of 5 to 8 or so. Even before school, a child learns from Flinch to recognize the names and relative order and values of simple figures up to 15.

I've been amazed at the number of different games with playing cards these children have had fun with for hours on end. And still more amazed at the number of twosome games they have played with the cards—like Fish, I Doubt It, Concentration and Horse.

By 8 or 10 they were often playing in foursomes at adult games of cards, though they needed help to keep score.

I've also observed that these grandchildren, in their pre - adolescent years, often played such card games at home among themselves, with their parents, or with playmates.

AT OUR home and their own, quarreling over cards has seldom occurred. It's a peaceful, quiet game, in which the participants easily learn the rules and tend to stick to them. It's a kind of home amusement deserving to be encouraged.

An occasional parent, brought up in a home where playing cards was associated with gambling and evil, discourages his young children to play cards. We should not criticize these parents. They have a right to their own convictions.

Neither in my own childhood home, nor in the home of Mrs. Myers were there ever any playing cards. She and I and our brothers and sisters honored our parents' wishes. And in doing so we, as children, gained far more, I'm sure, than we ever lost, from not playing cards. Anyway we had so many other means for wholesome fun.

BUT WHILE our own children were growing up, cards lost their association in our minds with evil. Rather we saw much good fun in them. But our children and grandchildren didn't learn to play for money or prizes, they played for sheer fun.

Maria Delays Concert, Berliners Are Angry

BERLIN (AP)—Soprano Maria Callas today postponed a Berlin concert indefinitely bringing angry Berliners to the box office to demand their money back.

The fiery American-born opera star, whose Italian husband is suing for a legal separation, announced through her local agents that she couldn't sing Saturday night because her personal American conductor, Nicola Rescigno, is sick in London.

Agents for the concert said she refused to sing with another conductor.

Mexico City, which then was called Tenochtitlan, was the capital of the Aztec empire.

Phone Service May Be Halted If Operators Strike

NORWALK, Ohio (AP) — Long distance telephone service in at least nine northern Ohio communities may be disrupted if more than 300 toll operators of the Northern Ohio Telephone Co. are called out on strike.

Negotiations between the company and Local 720, International Brotherhood of Electrical Workers, are deadlocked. Union members, toll operators in Norwalk, Galion, Oberlin, Port Clinton, Ashland, Delaware and at least a half-dozen other areas, have voted overwhelmingly to strike, the president of the local, Mrs. Martha Case of Norwalk, said Tuesday. A decision whether to strike will be made on the arrival here of Tony Bucella, the union's Ohio field representative.

The old contract expired Sunday at midnight. Company president William C. Henry reported management had offered the union a new contract with a wage increase and other benefits based on "an industry pattern." He said the union made demands "entirely out of line."

The utility is one of the largest independent telephone companies operating in Ohio.

How Can I

By ANNE ASHLEY

Q. How can I avoid the annoyance of puckered seams, caused by the shrinking of cotton thread, in some of the dresses I make at home?

A. Drop a new spool of sewing cotton into water. When the air bubbles stop forming, it will be wet all the way through. Then stand the spool in a warm place to dry thoroughly before using, and it will then be "pre-shrunk."

Q. How can I keep poached eggs from separating?

A. Pour a little vinegar into the water when poaching eggs, and it will prevent their spreading and separating.

Q. How can I make a substitute cork for the glue bottle?

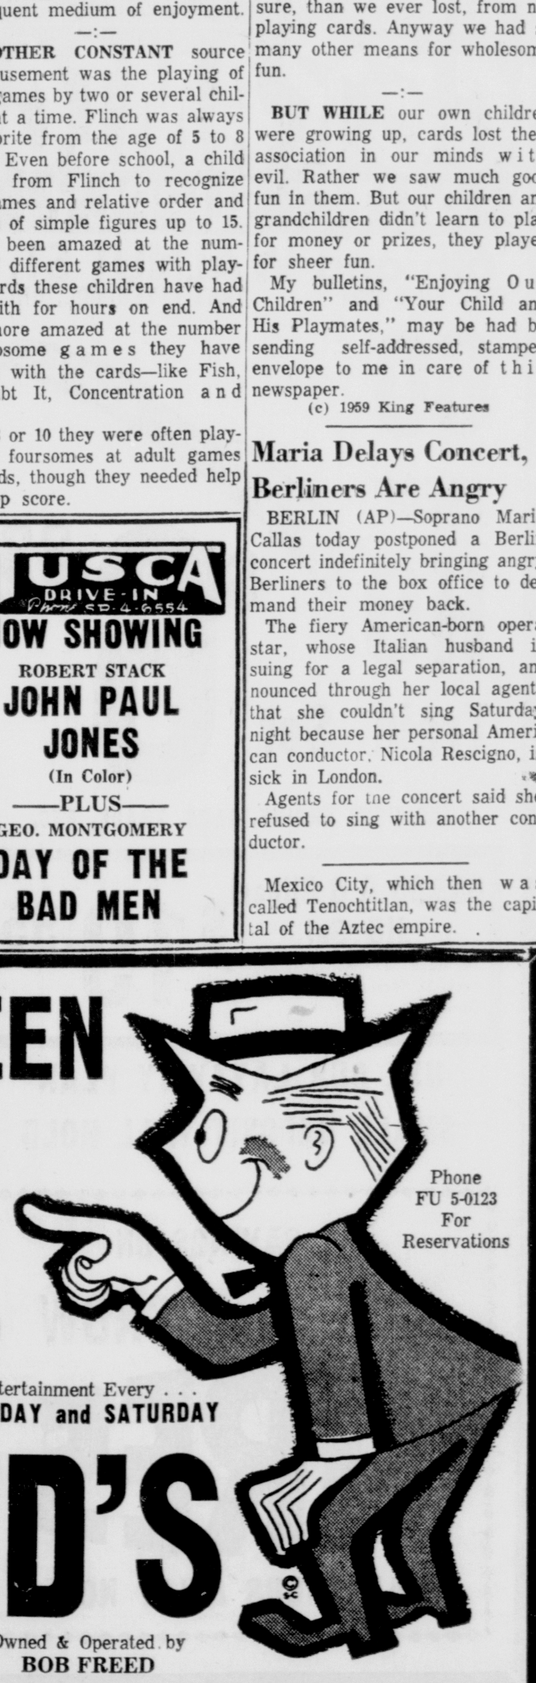

A. Try using the stump of an old candle. It will not stick and the glue can not spill.

Ohioan Fined In Tax Fraud

NEWARK, Ohio (AP)—In the first case of its kind in Ohio, a Newark man has been fined $15,000 for filing fraudulent tax returns on his intangible property.

Emerson Miller, 67, was fined $2,000, the maximum, on each of five counts. He also was fined $5,000 effective for five years but suspended on condition he files true returns in the future.

Miller is a former high school economics teacher, and the penalty was imposed by one of his former students, Common Pleas Judge Charles Holtsberry.

An official in the office of Atty. Gen. Mark McElroy said this is Ohio's first indictment on tax evasion since the tax was passed 30 years ago.

Miller pleaded guilty to the charges, which involved the years 1953 through 1957. The amount and the property involved could not be disclosed since tax returns are confidential unless submitted in court as evidence. An official said the amount was "substantial."

Licking County Prosecutor Howard Ashcraft recommended that a substantial penalty be assessed as a deterrent to others. Miller later said he was being used by the state and that errors in his returns were "unintentional and minor."

Miller told newsmen he was confident that if he'd had a jury trial he would have won the case. He declined a jury because his wife didn't want one, he said. Miller's attorney claimed that Miller owed the state only $2,200 and that this has already been paid.

Victim Of Polio Starts To School By Special Phone

CLEVELAND (AP) — Karen Genter, stricken with a paralytic disease since infancy, got a special gift on her 15th birthday — she started school.

A special telephone hookup between Dentzler elementary school in Parma and Karen's home is making her education possible. She spends most of her time in a wheelchair or in bed.

Classes for Karen started Tuesday. A microphone in the sixth grade classroom of Mrs. Helen Parish picks up everything said in the room. Karen has a microphone at home and she can speak to the class, ask questions and participate in discussions.

A classmate serves as announcer and reads to Karen everything that is written on the blackboard.

Twice a week a tutor will visit the Genter home to check Karen's papers and offer individual help.

3 Complete Crossing Of Atlantic In Raft

DUBLIN, Ireland (AP) — A bearded British writer and two German girls sailed their battered catamaran raft into an Irish harbor Tuesday after a seven-week crossing of the stormy Atlantic.

For Jim Wharram, 31, and his crew—Jutta Schultze Rhonhof, 22, and Ruth Merseburser, 37—a two-way crossing of the Atlantic was over.

The skipper said both the women are in love with him and he with both of them.

"If I could marry them both, I would do it right away," he told newsmen. "But society forbids it so we will just go on being happy."

To Protest A-Test

LONDON (AP)—The Direct Action Committee Against Nuclear War today announced plans to send an international protest team into the Sahara Desert area where France plans to test its first atomic bomb soon. The team will try to persuade workmen, technicians and military personnel to halt preparations for the tests.

Proposing to amend section 6 of Article XVIII of the constitution of the state of Ohio relative to the sale of the surplus product of municipal owned water and sewage systems.

Be it resolved by the General Assembly of the State of Ohio, Three-fifths of the members of each house concurring therein, that there shall be submitted to the electors of the state, in the manner prescribed by law, at the election to be held on the first Tuesday after the first Monday in November, 1959, a proposition to amend section 6 of Article XVIII of the Constitution of the state of Ohio as follows:

LEGAL NOTICES

ARTICLE XVIII

Sec. 6. Any municipality, owning or operating a public utility for the purpose of supplying the service or product thereof to the municipality or its inhabitants, may also sell and deliver to others any transportation service of such utility and the surplus product of any other utility in an amount not exceeding in either case fifty per  cent of the total service or product supplied by such utility within the municipality, provided that such fifty per cent limitation shall not apply to the sale of water or sewage services.

SCHEDULE

At the election herein designated for the submission of this amendment to the electors of the state of Ohio, the same shall be placed on the official ballot in the manner prescribed by law and shall be designated as follows:

YES	Shall section 6 of Article XVIII of the Constitution of the state of Ohio be amended to remove the limitation on the sale of water and sewage services by municipalities outside their corporate limits?
NO

The required publication of the said proposed amendment shall be made and the form of ballot to be used in said election for the submission thereof shall be prepared by the secretary of state of the state of Ohio in substantial conformity with the above provisions. If a majority of the electors voting on the foregoing proposed amendments at the election to be held on the first Tuesday after the first Monday in November, 1959, adopt the same, it shall be part of the Constitution of the state of Ohio and existing section 6 of Article XVIII shall thereupon be repealed.

2. ADDTIONAL JUDGES IN COURTS OF APPEALS

Proposing to amend section 6 of Article IV of the constitution of the state of Ohio to authorize the legislature to provide for additional judges in courts of appeals.

Be it resolved by the General Assembly of the State of Ohio, Three-fifths of the members of each house concurring therein, that there shall be submitted to the electors of the state, in the manner prescribed by law, at the general election to be held on the first Tuesday after the first Monday in November, 1959, a proposition to amend section 6 of Article IV of the constitution of the state of Ohio as follows:

ARTICLE IV

Sec. 6. The state shall be divided into appellate districts of compact territory bounded by county lines, in each of which there shall be a court of appeals consisting of three judges. Laws may be passed increasing the number of judges in any district wherein the volume of business may require such additional judge or judges. In districts having additional judges, three judges shall participate in the hearing and disposition of each case. Vacancies caused by the expiration of the terms of office of the judges of the courts of appeals shall be filled by the electors of the respective appellate districts in which such vacancies shall arise. Until otherwise provided by law the term of office of such judges shall be six years. Laws may be passed to prescribe the time and mode of such election and the qualifications of such judges, and to alter the number of districts or the boundaries thereof, but no such change shall abridge the term of any judge then in office. The court of appeals shall hold at least one term annually in each county in the district and such other terms at a county seat in the district as the judges may determine upon, and the county commissioners of any county in which the court of appeals shall hold sessions shall make proper and convenient provisions for the holding of such court by its judges and officers. Each judge shall be competent to exercise judicial powers in any appellate district of the state.

The courts of appeals shall have original jurisdiction in quo warranto, mandamus, habeas corpus, prohibition and procedendo, and such jurisdiction as may be provided by law to review, affirm, modify, set aside, or reverse judgments or final orders of boards, commissions, officers, or tribunals, and of courts of record inferior to the court of appeals within the district, and judgments of the courts of appeals shall be final in all cases, except cases involving questions arising under the constitution of the United States or of this state, cases of felony, cases of which it has original jurisdiction, and cases of public or great general interest in which the supreme court may direct any court of appeals to certify its record to that court. No judgment of any court of record entered on the verdict of the jury shall be set aside or reversed on the weight of the evidence except by the concurrence of all three judges of a court of appeals. Only a majority of such court of appeals shall be necessary to pronounce a decision, make an order or enter judgment, upon all other questions; and whenever the judges of a court of appeals find that a judgment upon which they have agreed is in conflict with a judgment pronounced upon the same question by any other court of appeals of the state, the judges shall certify the record of the case to the supreme court for review and final determination. The decisions in all cases in the supreme court shall be reported, together with the reasons therefor, and laws may be passed providing for the reporting of cases in the courts of appeals. The chief justice of the supreme court of the state may assign any judge of the court of appeals to any county to hold court. The chief justice of the supreme court shall determine the disability or disqualification of any judge of the court of appeals. ***

SCHEDULE

If a majority of the electors voting on the foregoing proposed amendment at the general election to be held on the first Tuesday after the first Monday in November, 1959, adopt the same, it shall become part of the constitution of the state of Ohio, and existing section 6 of Article IV shall thereupon be repealed.

3. METROPOLITAN FEDERATIONS

Proposing to amend Article X of the constitution of the state of Ohio by adding sections 5 and 6 thereto relative to metropolitan federations.

Be it resolved by the General Assembly of the State of Ohio, Three-fifths of the members of each house concurring therein, that there shall be submitted to the electors of the state, in the manner prescribed by law, at the election to be held on the first Tuesday after the first Monday in November, 1959, a proposition to amend Article X of the constitution of the state of Ohio by adding thereto two new sections as follows:

ARTICLE X

Sec. 5. A metropolitan federation counties may be formed by charter of all townships, municipalities, and to serve the entire area of one or more contiguous counties if the most populous city of the area has a population of more than fifty thousand, based upon the last preceding federal census. A metropolitan federation of contiguous townships or municipalities or both may be formed by charter to serve an area of less than a county if the most populous city of the county is included in the area and has a population of more than fifty thousand, based upon the last preceding federal census.

Within the area proposed to be included in the metropolitan federation, the legislative authority of the most populous city or the board of county commissioners of the county containing the most populous city may, by a two-thirds vote of its members, or shall, upon a petition stating the area to be included and signed by the number of electors of such stated area not less in number than ten per cent of the total number of votes cast for governor at the last preceding election therefor, by resolution stating the area to be included, order the submission to the electors of such area the question, "Shall a metropolitan federation charter commission be chosen?" The question shall be voted upon at the next general or primary election, occurring not sooner than ninety days after the adoption of the resolution. The ballot containing the question shall bear no party designation. Provision shall be made thereon for the election from the area at large of fifteen electors as the commission. Candidates for such commission shall be nominated by petition of not less than one hundred nor more than five hundred electors of the metropolitan area, and the petition shall be filed with the election officials of the county containing the most populous city not less than sixty days prior to such election. Candidates shall be declared elected in the order of the number of votes received, beginning with the candidate receiving the largest number; but no more than seven candidates residing in the same municipality or township shall be eligible to be declared elected provided that if the proposed federation be of only two political subdivisions, eight of the candidates may reside in either subdivision. Within eighteen months after its election, the commission shall frame a charter for the area stated in the resolution and shall then by resolution order the submission of the same to the electors of the area. Such charter shall be voted upon in such area at the next general election occurring not sooner than ninety days after the adoption of the resolution, and the election officials of the county or the secretary of state, if more than one county is involved, shall mail or otherwise distribute a copy thereof to each of the electors of the area as far as may be reasonably possible.

Every charter shall provide the form of government of the metropolitan federation and shall provide for the periodic election by the electors of the metropolitan federation of the officers exercising legislative power or legislative and executive powers and the principal officer exercising executive power thereunder. A charter may state which other officers shall be elected. The charter shall set forth the powers granted to and vested in the metropolitan federation and the duty or duties to be performed by the metropolitan federation. The charter may provide for the concurrent or exclusive exercise by the federation in all or part of its area of all or any of the powers vested by the constitution or laws of Ohio in townships, municipalities, or counties, except that no power of the kind exercised only by counties may be granted by a charter to a federation which does not include the entire area of one or more counties. Only such powers as are granted in the charter may be exercised by the federation and those powers not granted shall be reserved to the townships, municipalities, and any county included therein. The charter may provide for the succession by the federation to the rights, properties, and obligations of townships, municipalities, and counties therein incident to the municipal and county power vested in the federation, and for the division of the federation into districts for purposes of administration or of taxation or of both. Notwithstanding anything contained in any other article of this constitution, municipal powers and duties, and county powers and duties where one or more counties are to be included in the area, may be granted to the metropolitan federation and to the extent that such powers and duties are so granted as provided in the charter, such metropolitan federation shall participate in the distribution of township, municipal, and county revenues.

No charter or amendment thereto shall become effective until it has been approved by a majority of those voting thereon:

(1) in the entire area included by the provisions of the charter,

(2) in the most populous city in the included area,

(3) in the area outside the most populous city in the area, and

(4) in each county in the included area. Every charter or amendments thereto shall take effect on the thirtieth day after approval unless another date be fixed therein. A copy of the charter or amendment shall be filed with the secretary of state.

The legislative authority provided for in the charter may, by a two-thirds vote, or shall upon petition signed by the number of electors of the area not less in number than ten per cent of the total number of votes cast for governor in the area at the last preceding election therefor, submit amendments to the charter to the electors of the area for approval or disapproval in the same manner as provided for the adoption of the charter. Such legislative authority shall mail or otherwise distribute a copy thereof to each of the electors of the area as far as may be reasonably possible. When more than one amendment is submitted at the same time, the amendments shall be so submitted as to enable the electors to vote on each proposition separately. In case of conflict between the provisions of two or more amendments adopted at the same time, that provision shall prevail which received the highest affirmative vote.

With the consent of the legislative authority of the metropolitan federation, and upon petition signed by the number of electors of any adjoining county or any municipality or township contiguous to a metropolitan federation within the same county, not less in number than ten per cent of the total number of votes cast for governor at the last preceding election therefor, or by resolution of the county commissioners of such adjoining county, the question, "Shall the county or municipality or township be joined to the metropolitan federation?" shall be submitted to the electors of such county or area proposed to be joined. In any adjoining county, or in any municipality or township contiguous to a metropolitan federation within the same county in which a majority of the electors approve joining the federation, the charter shall become effective.

Sec. 6. The exercise of any power vested in municipal corporations under Article XVIII of this constitution by any county or metropolitan federation under the provisions of Sections 3 or 5 of this Article shall be subject to the constitutional limitations which apply to municipal corporations.

SCHEDULE

At the election herein designated for the submission of this amendment to the electors of the state of Ohio, the same shall be placed on the official ballot by the secretary of state in such form as the secretary of state may prescribe.

If a majority of the electors voting on the foregoing proposed amendment at the election to be held on the first Tuesday after the first Monday in November, 1959, adopt the same, it shall become part of the constitution of the state of Ohio.

ANNOUNCEMENTS

2 IN MEMORIAM

RUTH EASON

She wandered through that garden gate
That shields her from our sight;
Into a land that's free from pain,
A land that knows no night.
And though our hearts are empty still
Because our loss was great;
I know she would not have you mourn,
She's just inside the gate.

For there the Master welcomed her
To that new world divine;
With all its' beauties to behold,
Its' wonders so sublime.
And though we have not seen her smile,
Or heard her voice of late;
I know she has not wandered far,
She's just inside the gate.

Public Airing Opens In Rail Merger Plan

BUFFALO, N. Y. (AP)—Witnesses in favor of the proposed merger of the Erie and Delaware, Lackawanna & Western Railroads take the stand today at a public hearing of the Interstate Commerce Commission.

The group, representing customers of the two roads, opens the second day of hearings conducted by the federal agency.

Yesterday, the presidents of both railroads strongly urged the ICC's approval of the merger. However, their remarks were followed by stout opposition by another railroad and by dissident Lackawanna stockholders.

Perry Shoemaker, president of the DL&W, said the merger could effect economies that would lead to cost cuts for customers.

Savings would mean "improved facilities and better services," Erie President Harry W. VonWiller told the hearing. He said the merger was "greatly in the public interest."

The new road, which would be known as the Erie-Lackawanna Railroad Co., would be the nation's 12th largest.

Strong protest was expected from the New York, Chicago, and St. Louis railroad, known as the Nickel Plate, before the hearing concludes.

In its petition to take part as an intervener, the Nickel Plate charged that the merger would lessen substantially the competition for business, and in some cases eliminate it altogether.

As witnesses for the Erie and Lackawanna paraded to the stand, attorneys for the Nickel Plate sought to discredit claims of the two railroads that savings through the merger would result in more than 13 million dollars a year within five years.

The new company would have assets totaling 737 million dollars, with 3,200 miles of track from Hoboken and Jersey City, N. J., to Chicago.

Stockholders of both companies have approved the plan, which gives Erie shareholders 1¼ shares of stock for each share of Erie, while Lackawanna shareholders would receive 1-for-1. However, the dissident Lackawanna stockholders feel the distribution would be unfair to them.

First Progress Seen In Effort To End Strike

PITTSBURGH (AP) — For the first time in the 18-day strike of some 2,000 moldmakers against the glass container manufacturers, progress has been reported in negotiations to reach a settlement.

Federal Mediator William Rose reported Tuesday that the American Flint Glass Workers Union came up with a new verbal proposal toward a settlement. Terms were not disclosed.

Rose said the Glass Container Manufacturing Institute was expected to come up with a counter-proposal today.

The new proposal, said Rose, touched on both the matter of arbitration of grievances and wages, the two main bones of contention in the negotiations.

Cleveland Man Named By Christian Scientists

CLEVELAND — William Milford Correll of Cleveland today was named Christian Science Committee on Publication for Ohio.

He takes over the one-man committee post that has been held by Ralph F. Stewart since March 1950. Steward, who asked not to be reappointed, will devote his full time to his work as a Christian Science teacher and practitioner.

In his new post, Correll represents the Christian Science movement in dealing with the press, legislators, school administrators and public officials.

2,000 More Set To Strike

CINCINNATI (AP) — The possibility of strikes by some 2,000 union steel workers is in prospect at midnight tonight.

Ready to strike if negotiations fail are about 300 workers at Continental Can Co., Sharonville; 200 at American Co., Blue Ash; 700 at the American Co., 325 at Huenefeld Co., 250 at Balcrank Inc., and 250 at the Interchemical Corp., all of Cincinnati. Union contracts at all five plants expire at midnight.

All workers involved are members of District 25 United Steelworkers Union, except those at Interchemical, who are represented by the International Chemical Workers Union.

Meetings here with Federal Mediator Alton Hayman and the Interchemical officials and union representatives at 9 a.m. were to attempt to avert that strike. Another meeting with union representatives and officials of Huenefeld with Mediator James Wilson was planned at 10 a.m. and Wilson was to sit in at a meeting between union and company officials of Balcrank at 1:30 p.m.

The can companies' and steelworkers' bargainers also seek an industry wide settlement in New York.

Civilian Workers Up

WASHINGTON (AP) — Civilians employed by the federal government totaled 2,372,608 in August, a net increase of 1,914 over July. Sen. Harry F. Byrd (D-Va) reported this today as chairman of the Joint Committee on Reduction of Nonessential Federal Expenditures, which issues monthly reports on federal employment.

Vera Classified As Japan's Worst Storm Disaster

TOKYO (AP)—Typhoon Vera today was classed officially as the worst storm disaster in Japan's history.

The official toll of known dead reached 3,174. The previous high — 3,066 killed — was recorded after Typhoon Muroto in 1934.

In addition, 1,776 persons are still missing, and police said all casualty figures might be increased when full communications are restored with devastated areas.

So far, 9,419 injured have been reported. They included three Americans, the only U.S. casualties reported.

Vera smashed into thickly populated central Japan Saturday night with 160-mile winds.
